Affect Poetics of the New Hollywood Hauke

Lehmann, 2019-12-02 How is affective experience produced in the cinema And how can we write a history of this experience By asking these questions this study by Hauke Lehmann aims at rethinking our conception of a critical period in US film history the New Hollywood as a moment of crisis that can neither be reduced to economic processes of adaption nor to a collection of masterpieces Rather the fine grained analysis of core films reveals the power of cinematic images to affect their audiences to confront them with the new The films of the New Hollywood redefine the divisions of the classical genre system in a radical way and thereby transform the way spectators are addressed affectively in the cinema The study describes a complex interplay between three modes of affectivity suspense paranoia and melancholy All three each in their own way implicate spectators in the deep seated contradictions of their own feelings and their ways of being in the world their relations to history to society and to cultural fantasy On this basis Affect Poetics of the New Hollywood projects an original conception of film history as an affective history which can be re written up to the present day

Representations of Femininity in American Genre Cinema David Greven, 2011-04-25 The theme of female transformation informs the Hollywood representation of femininity from the studio era to the present Whether it occurs physically emotionally or on some other level transformation allows female protagonists to negotiate their own complex desires and to resist the compulsory marriage plot A sweeping study of Hollywood from Now Voyager The Heiress and Flamingo Road to Carrie the Alien films The Brave One and the slasher horror genre this book boldly unsettles commonplace understandings of genre film female sexuality and Freudian theory as it makes a strong new case for the queer relevance of female representation

The Dread of Difference Barry Keith Grant, 2015-04-01 The Dread of Difference is a classic Few film studies texts have been so widely read and so influential It s rarely on the shelf at my university library so continuously does it circulate Now this new edition expands the already comprehensive coverage of gender in the horror film with new essays on recent developments such as the Hostel series and torture porn Informative and enlightening this updated classic is an essential reference for fans and students of horror movies Stephen Prince editor of The Horror Film and author of Digital Visual Effects in Cinema The Seduction of Reality An impressive array of distinguished scholars gazes deeply into the darkness and then forms a Dionysian chorus reaffirming that sexuality and the monstrous are indeed mated in many horror films Choice An extremely useful introduction to recent thinking about gender issues within this genre Film Theory

Laughing, Screaming William Paul, 1994 An examination of an extremely popular box office genre the gross out movie Laughing Screaming is a serious study of this unashamedly lowbrow product

100 American Horror Films Barry Keith Grant, 2022-03-24 A well plotted survey Total Film In 100 American Horror Films Barry Keith Grant presents entries on 100 films from one of American cinema s longest standing most diverse and most popular genres representing its rich history from the silent era D W Griffith

s The Avenging Conscience of 1915 to contemporary productions Jordan Peele s 2017 Get Out In his introduction Grant provides an overview of the genre s history a context for the films addressed in the individual entries and discusses the specific relations between American culture and horror All of the entries are informed by the question of what makes the specific film being discussed a horror film the importance of its place within the history of the genre and where relevant the film is also contextualized within specifically American culture and history Each entry also considers the film s most salient textual features provides important insight into its production and offers both established and original critical insight and interpretation The 100 films selected for inclusion represent the broadest historical range and are drawn from every decade of American film making movies from major and minor studios examples of the different types or subgenres of horror such as psychological thriller monster terror gothic horror home invasion torture porn and parody as well as the different types of horror monsters including werewolves vampires zombies mummies mutants ghosts and serial killers Toward a Cinema of Exhaustion John Templin Schliesser, 1995 The Politics of Popular Representation Kenneth MacKinnon, 1992 These together with the emphasis on individual responsibility for health and material security not to mention resurgent machismo and a restored belief in the natural and unnatural help to explain the health disaster experienced in the United States United Kingdom and elsewhere A review of English language cinematic entertainment of the eighties reveals that the health crisis was scarcely alluded to although such values as those of militarism masculinity and family loyalty were addressed whether supportively or critically It is the argument of this book that the HIV virus and AIDS are approached if at all only obliquely particularly within the genre of the horror film and especially through those films dealing with corporeality or with lethal challenges to the traditional nuclear family International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers Tom Pendergast, Sara Pendergast, 2000 Contains over two thousand entries arranged alphabetically within four volumes that provide information about significant films actors and actresses directors and writers and production artists in North American British and West European cinematic history Includes photographs and indexes The Political Companion to American Film Gary Crowdus, 1994 The Political Companion to American Film is an encyclopedic collection of critical essays offering provocative social and political commentary on the work of filmmakers from Woody Allen to Darryl Zanuck and other film personalities from Charles Chaplin to John Wayne film genres from crime Movies to World War II Animated Propaganda Cartoons racial and ethnic portrayals from African Americans to Native Americans social issues from Big Businessmen to the Small Town theoretical and critical issues from the Auteur Theory to Postwar American Film Criticism economic and industrial issues from Conglomerates to the Studio System and much more The Political Companion to American Film features the writing of some of America s leading film critics and authors many of whom are specialists who have literally written the book on their subjects and has been edited by Gary Crowdus Editor in Chief of Cineaste America s leading magazine on the art and politics of the cinema The expertise and critical insights of these contributors are conveyed in a colorful comprehensible and jargon
