Misplaced Corpse:

Ligny's Lake Sidney Hobson Courtier, 1992 Reissue of a thriller first published in 1971 which echoes the disappearance of Prime Minister Harold Holt Includes an afterword by the series editors Michael J Tolley and Peter Moss New

Perspectives on Detective Fiction Casey Cothran, Mercy Cannon, 2015-10-14 This collection establishes new perspectives on the idea of mystery as it is enacted and encoded in the genre of detective fiction Essays reclaim detective fiction as an object of critical inquiry examining the ways it shapes issues of social destabilization moral ambiguity reader complicity intertextuality and metafiction Breaking new ground by moving beyond the critical preoccupation with classification of historical types and generic determinants contributors examine the effect of mystery on literary forms and on readers who experience the provocative complex process of coming to grips with the unknown and the unknowable This volume opens up discussion on publically acclaimed modern works of mystery and on classic pieces addressing a variety of forms including novels plays graphic novels television series films and ipad games Re examining the interpretive potential of a genre that seems easily defined yet has endless permutations the book closely analyzes the cultural function of mystery the way it intervenes in social and political problems as well as the literary properties that give the genre its particular shape The volume treats various texts as meaningful subjects for critical analysis and sheds new light on the interpretive potential for a genre that creates as much ambiguity as it does clarity Scholars of mystery and detective fiction crime fiction genre studies and cultural studies will find this volume invaluable Journeying and Journalling Giselle Bastin, 2010 In December 2004

the town of Penneshaw Kangaroo Island provided the backdrop for an international conference titled Journeying and Journalling The conference created a space for creative and critical meditations on travel writing Collectively the essays in this collection provide a snapshot of current directions and preoccupations in contemporary travel writing scholarship They function as a reminder of the work that has been done on representations of Indigeneity and of writing marginalised narratives into the travel canon However these chapters also remind us of the important work that remains particularly in relation to travel writing as form of reconciliation for example between Indigenous people and colonisers and between colonisers and neo colonials Scholars also bear the responsibility of considering the complexities of representing culture and place in a post colonial even post traumatic world This collection includes essays by Tim Youngs Helen Tiffin and Paul Sharrad and many other leading writers in the field of travel writing The Secret of the Garden Arthur Gask, 1993

Thriller first published in 1924 in which a bitter young man falsely accused by the bank which employed him hides out in the City of Churches Adelaide The author a dentist was a prolific writer of mystery and crime novels Includes an afterword by the series editors Michael J Tolley and Peter Moss Sherlock Holmes and the Body Snatchers Dean P.
