Mining the Hard Rock in the Silverton San Juans John Marshall, Zeke Zanoni, 1996-01-01      Hard-rock Miners

Ronald C. Brown, 1979 When the colorful western prospectors had made their strikes and moved on they left behind them another lesser known breed of men the hard rock miners For six decades these men followed mining opportunities into the boom towns of the intermountain West and gouged from the depths of other men's wealth In mines ranging from prospect holes to underground extractories they picked and blasted sometimes in shifts of twelve hours and found not only ore and minerals but also lung destroying dust Working by candlelight in ill ventilated narrow and often sweltering depths they courted dangers from fire gas subterranean water and cave ins Management's interest in high productivity and profits often jeopardized miners needs for a living wage and job security Above ground they lived in communities like Cripple Creek Goldfield Bisbee and Leadville communities that were western yet urban There they faced the rigors of a rugged climate frontier scarcities and ramshackle housing But they relieved their hardships with their own brand of entertainment rock drilling contests that were to the miner what rodeos were to the cowboys practical jokes traveling show troupes and social gatherings
