Some years ago Faith in the Countryside the report of the Archbishop's Commission on Rural Areas Acora was launched at Lambeth Palace It was widely accepted as a good document and a worthy companion to Faith in the City But while it seemed to put the rural Church on the agenda it failed to come up with acceptable ministerial solutions Andrew Bowden's book offers a model for future rural ministry which is practical positive and a much needed follow up to the Commission's report He recognises that although rural dioceses have taken new initiatives rural clergy and congregations need an overall vision and a practical strategy This excellent handbook is as significant as the report itself for the future of rural ministry It is now reissued with an expanded text to take recent developments fully into account      Research
