the uncensored cartoons such as Lenny Bruce's Thank You Mask Man and Ralph Bakshi's Fritz the Cat. The censorship of television cartoons is next covered from the changes made in theatrical releases shown on television to the different standards that apply to small screen animation. The final chapter discusses the many animators who were blacklisted from the industry in the 1950s for alleged sympathies to the Communist Party.

The Art of Movie Storyboards Fionnuala Halligan, 2015-10-01. The unsung heroes of film storyboard artists are the first to give vision to a screenplay translating words on the page into shots for the screen. Their work is a unique art form in itself. Many storyboards are beautiful in their own right but ultimately the skill of the artist lies in their visual communication of a script with multiple factors to consider: composition, movement, camera angles, special effects, and the rhythm and pacing of a scene. The Art of Movie Storyboards celebrates this art showcasing a vast collection of storyboards in a range of styles and including some of cinema's greatest moments. The collection includes the work of pioneers such as William Cameron Menzies' Gone with the Wind and Saul Bass' Psycho, Spartacus, as well as contemporaries such as Raoul Monge's Pan's Labyrinth and Jane Clark's Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire. Many are seen here for the first time and all are accompanied by insights into the films featured, their directors, and of course the storyboard artists.
