Minstrel Of A Modern Time:

Minstrel of a Modern Time David Telford,2005-08-01 Time on the road is longer than time in normal life Without the distractions of work and family and friends with only miles of road and the search for the next meal or a warm dry place to camp one can invest their full energy into the analysis of a single thought Angus Tory McLeod had lived his life one day at a time since the death of his parents Carpe Diem seize the day was his creed He traveled the country from one end to the other always on the move working for his meals and lodging and leaving behind a token of his appreciation in song poem or portrait To him the future was only as far away as the next town When he meets Jenna a young lady for whom time is running out Tory s concept of time changes drastically Together they find love and for their brief time together they live each day to its fullest But when they are finally parted it is the future and what might have been that consumes Tory s thoughts His only relief is to reach out to Jenna s family in hopes of reconnecting to his lost love     A History of English Culture from the Earliest Known Period to Modern Times Thomas Wright,1874     English Minstrelsie Sabine Baring-Gould,1895
