Minute Of Silence:

Half a Minute's Silence, and Other Stories Maurice Baring, 1925 A Minute's Silence Siegfried Lenz, 2009 A new novella from the eminence grise of German letters a story of doomed love between a teenage boy and his teacher set in the 1930s in a small Baltic fishing community Secular Bodies, Affects and Emotions Monique Scheer, Nadia Fadil, Birgitte Schepelern Johansen, 2019-01-10 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Taking its cue from the study of lived religion Secular Bodies Affects and Emotions shows how the idea of a secular public is equally marked by a display and cultivation of affect and emotions Whereas it is widely agreed that religion is often saturated by emotion the secular is usually treated as a neutral background serving as the domain of public rational deliberation This book demonstrates that secularity and secularism are also upheld by bodily practices and emotional attachments Drawing on empirical case studies this is the first book to ask and explore whether a secular body exists Building on the work of Talal Asad the book argues that the secular is not an absence of religion but a positive entity that comes about through its co constitutive relationship with religion And once we attune ourselves to recognizing its operations as grammar which structures social practice writing an anthropology of the secular could become a new possibility Celebrating Life Customs around the World Victoria R. Williams, 2016-11-21 This book documents hundreds of customs and traditions practiced in countries outside of the United States showcasing the diversity of birth coming of age and death celebrations worldwide From the beginning of our lives to the end all of humanity celebrates life's milestones through traditions and unique customs In the United States we have specific events like baby showers rites of passage such as Bat and Bar Mitzvahs and sweet 16 birthday parties and sober end of life traditions like obituaries and funeral services that honor those who have died But what kinds of customs and traditions are practiced in other countries How do people in other cultures welcome babies prepare to enter into adulthood and commemorate the end of the lives of loved ones This three volume encyclopedia covers more than 300 birth life and death customs with the books content organized chronologically by life stage Volume 1 focuses on birth and childhood customs Volume 2 documents adolescent and early adulthood customs and Volume 3 looks at aging and death customs The entries in the first volume examine pre birth traditions such as baby showers and other gift giving events and post birth customs such as naming ceremonies child rearing practices and traditions performed to ward off evil or promote good health The second volume contains information about rites of passage as children become adults including indigenous initiations marriage customs and religious ceremonies The final volume concludes with coverage on customs associated with aging and death such as retirement celebrations elaborate funeral processions and the creation of fantasy coffins The set features beautiful color inserts that illustrate examples of celebrations and ceremonies and includes an appendix of excerpts from primary documents that include legislation on government accepted names wedding vows and maternity paternity leave regulations Index to Short Stories, 1929 A
