Miraculous Weapons Revolutionary Ideology In Caribbean Culture:

Miraculous Weapons Joy Allison Indira Mahabir, 2000      Transoceanic Dialogues Véronique Bragard, 2008 This work offers a close reading of literary works in French and in English by women writers whose ancestors originally came to the Caribbean or across the Indian Ocean as indentured labourers      Caribbean Literature and the Public Sphere Raphael Dalleo, 2011-10-17 Bringing together the most exciting recent archival work in anglophone francophone and hispanophone Caribbean studies Raphael Dalleo constructs a new literary history of the region that is both comprehensive and innovative He examines how changes in political economic and social structures have produced different sets of possibilities for writers to imagine their relationship to the institutions of the public sphere In the process he provides a new context for rereading such major writers as Mary Seacole Jos Mart Jacques Roumain Claude McKay Marie Chauvet and George Lamming while also drawing lesser known figures into the story Dalleo s comparative approach will be important to Caribbeanists from all of the region s linguistic traditions and his book contributes even more broadly to debates in Latin American and postcolonial studies about postmodernity and globalization      Beyond Boundaries Christopher Gair, 2006-03-20 This book brings together leading critics to explore the work of CLR James the world famous Caribbean intellectual An examination of the wide impact that CLR James has had on contemporary thought as a historian novelist cultural and political theorist and activist The authors reinvigorate James s inspiring critical output with particular reference to the impact he has had on cultural studies Examining James overlap with other theorists such as Lacan and Gramsci the book also shows how racial identity and cultural politics are key themes in his work not to mention his unique writings on cricket      Class Interruptions Robin Brooks, 2021-12-20 As downward mobility continues to be an international issue Robin Brooks offers a timely intervention between the humanities and social sciences by examining how Black women s cultural production engages debates about the growth in income and wealth gaps in global society during the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Using an interdisciplinary approach this innovative book employs major contemporary texts by both African American and Caribbean writers Toni Morrison Gloria Naylor Dawn Turner Olive Senior Oonya Kempadoo Merle Hodge and Diana McCauley to demonstrate how neoliberalism within the broader framework of racial capitalism reframes structural inequalities as personal failures thus obscuring how to improve unjust conditions Through interviews with authors textual analyses of the fiction and a diagramming of cross class relationships Brooks offers compelling new insight on literary portrayals of class inequalities and division She expands the scope of how the Black women s literary tradition since the 1970s has been conceptualized by repositioning the importance of class and explores why the imagination matters as we think about novel ways to address long standing and simultaneously evolving issues      Thinking in Public Celucien L. Joseph, 2017-04-25 Thinking in Public provides a probing and provocative meditation on the intellectual life and legacy of Jacques Roumain As a work of intellectual history the book investigates the intersections of religious ideas secular humanism and development within the framework of Roumain's public intellectualism and cultural criticism embodied in his prolific writings. The book provides a reconceptualization of Roumain's intellectual itineraries against the backdrop of two public spheres: a national public sphere (Haiti) and a transnational public sphere (the global world). Second, it remaps and reframes Roumain's intellectual circuits and his critical engagements within a wide range of intellectual traditions, cultural and political movements, and philosophical and religious systems. Third, the book argues that Roumain's perspective on religion, social development, and his critiques of religion in general and of institutionalized Christianity in particular were substantially influenced by a Marxist philosophy of history and a secular humanist approach to faith and human progress. Finally, the book advances the idea that Roumain's concept of development is linked to the theories of democratic socialism, relational anthropology, distributive justice, and communitarianism. Ultimately, this work demonstrates that Roumain believed that only through effective human solidarity and collaboration can serious social transformation and real human emancipation take place.

Island Futures Mimi Sheller, 2020-10-16 In Island Futures, Mimi Sheller delves into the ecological crises and reconstruction challenges affecting the entire Caribbean region during a time of climate catastrophe. Drawing on fieldwork on postearthquake reconstruction in Haiti, flooding on the Haitian-Dominican border, and recent hurricanes, Sheller shows how ecological vulnerability and the quest for a just recovery in the Caribbean emerge from specific transnational political, economic, and cultural dynamics. Because foreigners are largely ignorant of Haiti's political, cultural, and economic contexts, especially the historical role of the United States, their efforts to help often exacerbate inequities. Caribbean survival under ever-worsening environmental and political conditions, Sheller contends, demands radical alternatives to the pervasive neocolonialism, racial capitalism, and US military domination that have perpetuated what she calls the coloniality of climate. Sheller insists that alternative projects for Haitian reconstruction, social justice, and climate resilience and the sustainability of the entire region must be grounded in radical Caribbean intellectual traditions that call for deeper transformations of transnational economies, ecologies, and human relations.

Caribbean and South Asian Writers in Canada Mary Kandiuk, 2007-01-26 This is the first bibliography of both new and established Caribbean and South Asian writers living in Canada. The writers included in this volume are responsible for some of the most interesting writing coming out of Canada today. While the work of these writers is attracting worldwide attention and acclaim, literary criticism relating to their work is often scarce and difficult to locate. By citing critical source material on the works of these 27 significant poets, novelists, and dramatists, Caribbean and South Asian Writers in Canada fills a gap in existing bibliographical tools. The figures included in this bibliography are celebrated, established authors such as Austin C. Clarke, Bharati Mukherjee, and Michael Ondaatje, as well as exciting newcomers like Dionne Brand, Marlene Nourbese Philip, and Rohinton Mistry. Each section begins with a brief biography of the author, followed by a bibliography of his or her works. Following the primary bibliography is a listing of secondary criticism in English. Secondary sources include books, parts of books, periodical articles, book reviews, and dissertations The bibliography also includes extensive listings of secondary criticism for materials not indexed elsewhere and brief annotations are provided to indicate the subject matter of the work Caribbean and South Asian Writers in Canada will meet the needs of students and scholars around the world exploring an exciting new chapter in Canadian Literature The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,2005 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature Journal of West Indian Literature ,2005 Beyond Boundaries: C.L.R. James Christopher Gair,2006-03-20 Critical overview of James s writings and their relation to postcolonial and postnational studies more broadly American Book Publishing Record ,2003 American Doctoral Dissertations ,2000 Jouvert Joy Mahabir,2006 While growing up in Trinidad Annaise s longing to be a visual artist is influenced by the vibrant river scenes in her village as well as the iridescent swirling colors she finds in the Jouvert streets of San Fernando during the Carnival season Her relationships and her experiences open her eyes to the fierce and vulnerable edges of life and beauty in the Caribbean As an adult Annaise goes to New York and begins to perceive a contradiction between the world of gallery art in Manhattan and the world of Caribbean art that she finds in Brooklyn A visit with relatives in Toronto unearths old family secrets hidden hostilities and gives her a new understanding of immigrant family relations as well as art Annaise goes to Trinidad to reconnect with her mother and there she gains deeper insights into Indo Caribbean culture through the feminine energies and rhythms that surround her and inspire her art She returns to New York where she finds love and kinship in the Caribbean and African American communities in Brooklyn and she discovers the path that she must follow in order to create the jouvert arts of the street and the earth New West Indian Guide ,2006 Bibliographic Index ,2004 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993 Latin American Research Review ,1988 An interdisciplinary journal that publishes original research and surveys of current research on Latin America and the Caribbean Das Schweizer Buch ,2003
