Mirall Trencat:

A Broken Mirror Merc_ Rodoreda, 2006-01-01 In its moment of great splendor the novel was held as a mirror of society Merc_ Rodoreda shatters that mirror in this her most ambitious novel which tells its story in brilliant fragments a vision reflected and refracted and finally coming together in a richly articulated mosaic of life Through this Broken Mirror the reader sees events and characters spanning three generations and composing a kaleidoscopic family history ranging over six decades and turning upon events both intimate and historic most notably the Spanish Civil War Opening with Teresa Goday the lovely young fishmonger's daughter married to a wealthy old man the story shifts from one perspective to another reflecting from myriad angles the founding of a matriarchal dynasty and its eventual seemingly inevitable disintegration A family saga extending from the prosperous Barcelona of the 1870s to the advent of the Franco dictatorship A Broken Mirror is finally also a novel about the inexorable passing of time

Mercè Rodoreda : a selected and annotated bibliography (2002-2011) McNerney, Kathleen, 2015-06-26 This bibliography listed alphabetically by authors of books and articles on Merc Rodoreda offers a detailed description of the content of more than two hundred studies on her work In addition to Rodoreda's narrative the last decade has seen many more studies of her theater poetry painting and early journalism Also included is a comprehensive listing of editions and translations as well as an index The intention is to analyze and diffuse the great body of academic production on this worldwide representative of Catalan culture with the hope that future studies can profit by a reading of pertinent existing scholarship on the subject There are various kinds of publications from congress proceedings and chapters in related studies to standard cultural periodicals and books from university or academic presses Some are more specialized than others and approaches are as varied as the authors with focuses on comparative literature and influences historical or biographical aspects symbolic or thematic analyses linguistic or pedagogical studies psychological or formalistic viewpoints narrative tendencies and techniques Readers of Rodoredan scholarship will recognize the names of many of these contributors but there are newer Rodoreda specialists represented as well

Voices and Visions Kathleen McNerney, 1999-05 The volume gives an excellent overall view of Rodoreda's poetry in the original and in translation her short stories and novels A completely annotated cross indexed bibliography of the critical work on Rodoreda accompanied by an analysis of the current state of criticism on her work is included

Challenges and Perspectives of Iberia and Beyond Mark Gant, Deirdre Kelly, Siân Edwards, Susana Rocha Relvas, 2025-08-05 This volume offers innovative emerging research on Iberian Studies approached from an interdisciplinary multicultural and transnational perspective The chapters encompass an array of disciplinary perspectives from economics society and politics to literature cinema and other artistic forms Core themes revolve around memory and historical revisionism complemented by intra Iberian perspectives that emphasize dialogues and exchanges between Portugal and Spain Cross border relations within Europe also receive notable attention particularly Anglo Iberian contacts and influences in political historical and cultural domains The volume includes comparative studies focusing on literature cinema and television series showcasing the interplay between these artistic forms Literary representations of regional cultural identities particularly Basque and Catalan during times of war and dictatorship are analysed through the lens of female writers Transatlantic crossings and influences expand the geographical and cultural scope of Iberian Studies Cultural and social connections between Portugal Brazil Cape Verde and Angola are explored alongside Spanish Moroccan relations in recent decades

Gender, Class, and Nation Christine Arkinstall, 2004 Little attention has been paid to Merce Rodoreda 1908-1983 as a modernist writer This study addresses the relationship of her production with Catalan Spanish and European modernism Foregrounded is Rodoreda's negotiation of the overlapping subjects of gender class modes of representation and national identities In the first three chapters her pre Civil War novels Soc una dona honrada Un dia de la vida d'un home and Del que hom no pot fugir are read against key Catalan texts particularly Eugeni d'Ors to emphasize debates surrounding modernist aesthetics and models of Catalan national identity The modernist preoccupation with high versus low literature is developed in Aloma while El carrer de les Camelies reconfigures the flaneur vis à vis the female writer's positioning in the modernist enterprise The modernist debt to realism and the revindication of early Catalan modernism in the 1970s are examined in Mirall trencat Christine Arkinstall is a Senior Lecturer in Spanish at The University of Auckland
