Miriam Coffin, Or the Whale-Fishermen, Vol. 2 of 2, 2015-07-01 Excerpt from Miriam Coffin or the Whale Fishermen Vol 2 of 2 A Tale There are but few women of perception who are unable to estimate their own attractions and to set a just value upon their power Personal vanity to be sure is frequently betrayed to excess in the exhibition of the thousand little arts to which females resort to catch the eyes or to rivet the chains about the hearts of the men but most women know the best way of managing these things and how to adorn themselves for conquest It is a lamentable truth however that many of the gentler sex draw off their light artillery at a time when it behooves them to play their engines most skilfully and to keep up a constant and well directed fire How truly this may be exemplified the attentive observer may determine for himself by looking into the conduct of most females after marriage The bright eyes and wreathed smiles of the maid when she met her lover are changed to lacklustre orbs and forbidding soberness in the matron towards the husband and at times to pouting peevishness or dinning invective About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
