The Mirror and the Killer-queen Gabriele Schwab,1996 On literature s cultural function      Postcolonial Perspectives on Postcommunism in Central and Eastern Europe Dorota Kołodziejczyk,Cristina Șandru,2017-10-02 A quarter of a century after the fall of the Berlin Wall and from the vantage point of a post Cold War globalised world there is a need to address the relative neglect of postcommunism in analysis of postcolonial and neo colonial configurations of power and influence This book proposes new critical perspectives on several themes and concepts that have emerged within or been propagated by postcolonial studies These themes include structures of exclusion inclusion formations of nationalism structures of othering and representations of difference forms and historical realisations of anti colonial anti imperial struggle the experience of trauma involving issues of collective memory amnesia and the re writing of history resistance as a complex of cultural practices and concepts such as alterity ambivalence self colonisation dislocation hegemonic discourse minority and subaltern cultures Taken together this volume suggests that some of the methodological instruments of postcolonial criticism can be fruitfully applied to the study of postcommunist cultures and conversely that the experience of the Soviet brand of imperialist rule in the form of communism in East Central Europe can function as an ideological moderator in Third World oriented Marxist inspired postcolonial discourses This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Postcolonial Writing      Scanning the Hypnograph Nathaniel Wallace,2016-09-07 Nathaniel Wallace s Scanning the Hypnograph chronicles a contemporary genre that exploits sleep s evocative dimensions While dreams sleeping nudes and other facets of the dormant state were popular with artists of the early twentieth century and long before sleep experiences have given rise to an even wider range of postmodern artwork Scanning the Hypnograph first assesses the modernist framework wherein the sleeping subject typically enjoys firm psychic grounding As postmodernism begins subjective space is fragmented the representation of sleep reflecting the trend Among other topics this book demonstrates how portrayals of dormant individuals can reveal imprints of the self Gender issues are taken up as well Mainstream heterosexual representations are considered along with depictions of gay lesbian and androgynous sleepers      Uncanny Fairy Tales Francesca Arnavas,2024-05-31 There are fairy tales that surprise destabilise or even shock us these are uncanny fairy tales that manipulate familiar stories in creative and bewildering ways in order to express new meanings This work analyses these tales basing its approach on a reformulation of Freud s concept of the uncanny Through a cognitive outlook the employed theoretical framework provides new perspectives on the study of experimental literary fairy tales Considering English language literature complex and unsettling reinterpretations of the fairy tale discourse began to appear during the Victorian Age later resurfacing as a postmodern trend This research individuates uncanny related narrative techniques and cognitive responses as means to decodify and explore these tales and as ways to discover unseen connections between Victorian and postmodern texts The new theorisation of the uncanny is linked with three subconcepts mirror hybridity and wonder which function as tools to describe and investigate the cognitive and emotional entanglements characterising enigmatic and disorienting fairy tales      Remapping Knowledge Mihai I. Spariosu, 2006-03-01 The growing interdependence of the local and the global demand innovative approaches to human development Such approaches the author argues ought to be based on the emerging ethics of global intelligence defined as the ability to understand respond to and work toward what will benefit all human beings and will support and enrich all life on this planet As no national or supranational authority can predefine or predetermine it global intelligence involves long term collective learning processes and can emerge only from continuing intercultural research dialogue and cooperation In this book the author elaborates the basic principles of a new field of intercultural studies oriented toward global intelligence He proposes concrete research and educational programs that would help create intercultural learning environments designed to stimulate sustainable human development throughout the world      Writing the Voice of Pleasure A. Callahan, 2001-11-09 The Voice of Pleasure makes a persuasive and fascinating argument that the romantic couple of Western representation is not heterosexual Nor is it homosexual With insightful new readings of landmarks of Western culture from Tristan and Yseult to Seinfeld Callahan demonstrates that the illusion of heterosexuality is created by a male artist's assumption of a feminine voice to express desire Named the troubadour effect for the first time here this tradition of male femininity in romantic writing results in a cultural model of desire best described as heterosexuality without women The most compelling aspect of the book is its attention to the effect of this paradox on women writers Illuminating her argument with striking examples from the troubadour to Toni Morrison the author shows how women writers inscribe their vagabondage a term she coins to name the consequences of the troubadour effect for women's agency as both writers and lovers      A Desire for Women Suzanne Juhasz, 2003 Annotation An exploration of women's desire for women      Cultural Encounters in Contemporary Spain Debra Faszter-McMahon, 2010-07 Previous critical studies have focused on feminist approaches to Jane's oeuvre This study seeks to expand those discussions through an analysis of the aesthetics of cultural otherness rather than simply gendered otherness within Jane's prolific literary production      Murakami Haruki Michael Seats, 2009-01-01 This book offers a new approach to dealing with Murakami's radical narrative project by demonstrating how his first and later trilogies utilize the structure of the simulacrum a second order representation to develop a complex critique of contemporary Japanese culture      Alice's Adventures in the Oral-literary Continuum Björn Sundmark, 1999 Analysis of the oral and literary elements between the traditional folktale and the Victorian literary fairy tale      Twentieth Century Literary Criticism Linda Pavlovski, 2004-04 Presents literary criticism on the works of twentieth century writers of all genres nations and cultures Critical essays are selected from leading sources including published journals magazines books reviews diaries interviews radio and television transcripts pamphlets and scholarly papers      Reading Feminist Intertextuality Through Bluebeard Stories Casie Hermansson, 2001 This study offers a theory for feminist intertextuality based on strategies at work in rewritings of the

Bluebeard fairy tale The book asserts that feminist intertextuality revises one coercive intertext in particular that of intertextuality theory itself Rewritings of the fairy tale accordingly can be seen to privilege either the embedded narrative or the escape from it subscribing either to monologic or dialogic intertextuality The work examines the original Bluebeard tale group Perrault Grimm variants historical and modern Bluebeards and other writers including Jane Austen William Godwin Margaret Atwood John Fowles Peter Ackroyd Kurt Vonnegut Angela Carter Gloria Naylor Emma Cave Max Frisch Stephen King Meira Cook and Donald Barthelme

Psychoanalytical Approaches to Montaigne ,1997 Iconographies of Power Ulla Haselstein,Berndt Ostendorf,Peter Schneck,2003 Today the question of iconography has taken on a new and more general urgency As a dominant cultural practice iconography embraces the politics as well as the poetics of visual representation within their specific historical and cultural conditions In its contemporary significance the question of iconography moreover reaches beyond disciplinary boundaries of conventional definitions and interpretations of the relation between words and images in a demand to critically compare and contrast their different iconographies as cultural practices of power In their distinct arguments and from different perspectives the essays collected in this volume are all similarly concerned with the iconographical power and poetics of the image including a broad range of visual representations prints and illustrations painting sculpture and concept art documentary and art photography film comedy and digital imagery In all these instances the image is looked at not as an exclusive and isolated phenomenon but rather emphatically as a visual and contextual event as both the source and target of the collision and the collusion of word and image as instances and symptoms of contemporary iconographic practice alike With contributions by Winfried Fluck Mario Klarer Mick Gidley Douglas Tallack Heinz Ickstadt Peter Schneck Maren Stange Hanne Loreck Zsofia Ban Susanne v Falkenhausen Deniz Gokturk Wendy Steiner Hanjo Berressem Kaja Silverman Michael Wetzl
