Mirroring Belief Marguerite De Navarres Devotional Poetry:

Mirroring Belief Gary Ferguson, 1992 Offering new readings of Marguerite de Navarre's verse works by situating them within their contemporary religious and literary context this work reviews theological and mystical writings but pays particular attention to the devotional writing which flourished in the 15th and 16th centuries and which is virtually unknown today Four theological issues central to the Reformation are discussed the nature of justification the role of the Church and the sacraments the problem of faith and works and the question of the Bible and its interpretation Examining the religious structures and language that inform de Navarre's poems and plays Ferguson draws conclusions regarding the author's religious beliefs as they are mirrored in her poetry This text should be of interest to students of French Renaissance literature

Spiritual Sonnets Gabrielle de Coignard, 2007-11-01 Born into a wealthy family in Toulouse Gabrielle de Coignard ca 1550-86 married a prominent statesman in 1570 Widowed three years later with two young daughters to raise Coignard turned to writing devotional verse to help her cope with her practical and spiritual struggles Spiritual Sonnets presents the first English translation of 129 of Coignard's highly autobiographical poems giving us a startlingly intimate view into the life and mind of this Renaissance woman The sonnets are all written in the shadow of the Cross and include elegies penitential lyrics Biblical meditations and more Rich with emotion Coignard's poems reveal anguished moments of loneliness and grief as well as ecstatic experiences of mystical union They also reveal her mastery of sixteenth century literary conventions and spiritual traditions This edition printed in bilingual format with Melanie E Gregg's translations facing the French originals will be welcomed by teachers and students of poetry French literature women's studies and religious and Renaissance studies

BOOK
JACKET Speaking of Love: The Love Dialogue in Italian and French Renaissance Literature Reinier Leushuis, 2017-03-27 Re evaluating the dialogue's place in the literary landscape of the Italian and French Renaissance Speaking of Love presents the love dialogue at the intersection of a revival of the form and the period's philosophies of love and desire Between 1540 and 1580 authors such as Speroni Tullia d'Aragna the Venetian poligrafi Tyard Le Caron Pasquier Taillemont Marguerite de Navarre and Louise Lab feature interlocutors not only deliberating on love but imitating the experience of love in their dynamics of speaking These love dialogues allow early modern ideologies and discourses of love to be imitated by the reader and rival lyric poetry in conveying amorous experience validating dialogue as an authentic literary form rather than a tool of philosophical thinking Writings by Pre-Revolutionary French Women Colette H. Winn, Anne R.

Larsen,2017-09-29 The present volume covers 30 Pre Revolutionary French women providing a representative sampling of their manifold and varied contributions to intellectual and cultural history This volume is unique in its grouping of essentially French writers from the Pre Revolutionary period The authors included here range from those prominent because of their social position or literary fame to those slowly becoming part of a new canon of Old Regime women writers authors whose works were known to their contemporaries but who have slipped into near invisibility in the following centuries until their recent rediscovery and reassessment Women and the Reformation Kirsi Stjerna,2011-09-09 Women and the Reformation gathers historical materials and personal accounts to provide a comprehensive and accessible look at the status and contributions of women as leaders in the 16th century Protestant world Explores the new and expanded role as core participants in Christian life that women experienced during the Reformation Examines diverse individual stories from women of the times ranging from biographical sketches of the ex nun Katharina von Bora Luther and Queen Jeanne d'Albret to the prophetess Ursula Jost and the learned Olimpia Fulvia Morata Brings together social history and theology to provide a groundbreaking volume on the theological effects that these women had on Christian life and spirituality Accompanied by a website at www.blackwellpublishing.com/stjerna offering students access to the writings by the women featured in the book

Approaches to Teaching Marguerite de Navarre's Heptameron Colette H. Winn,2007 Marguerite de Navarre writer reformer patron was a key figure of the French Renaissance Her works however were critically reassessed by scholars only in the twentieth century Today her Heptameron is widely anthologized and frequently taught in undergraduate and graduate classrooms But teaching this collection of novellas presents challenges the work is in Middle French complex in its construction and far reaching in its use of historical context This ninety fifth volume in the Approaches to Teaching World Literature series aims to show teachers how to unravel the intricacies of the Heptameron for students The first part Materials reviews editions and translations surveys sources that are useful in the classroom and considers audiovisual and technological resources available to instructors The second part Approaches features twenty seven essays that explore the Heptameron and its cultural and historical contexts the religious and political ideas and the literary genres that influenced it its publishing history and its relation to other works by Marguerite Experienced instructors share insights about how to teach this work in foreign language and survey courses how to incorporate film and visual art in the classroom and how to approach the subject of gender in discussing Marguerite's writing Reference Guide to World Literature Lesley Henderson, Sarah M. Hall, 1995

Overviews of writers and works from the ancient Greeks through the 20th century written by subject experts Each author entry provides a detailed overview of the writer's life and works Work entries cover a particular piece of world literature in detail Journal of the Early Book Society for the Study of Manuscripts and Printing History Early Book Society, 1999

Selected Writings Marguerite (Königin, Navarra), 2008-10-15 Marguerite de Navarre 1492-1549 was the sister and wife to kings and a pivotal influence in sixteenth century France An astute politician and diligent humanist she was a champion of gender equality and the evangelical reform movement which recognized that the clergy was more concerned with maintaining the church's power than ministering to the faithful As the years passed and the glitter of life at court waned however Marguerite came to realize her true vocation writing Selected Writings brings together a representative sampling of Marguerite's varied writings most of it never before translated into English enabling Anglophone readers to enjoy the full breadth of her work for the first time From verse letters and fables to mythological pastoral tales from spiritual songs to a selection of novellas from the Heptameron the wide range of works included here will reveal Marguerite de Navarre to be one of the most important writers male or female of sixteenth century France King's Sister, Queen of Dissent Jonathan Andrew Reid, 2001 Reading Monarch's Writing Peter C. Herman, 2002 In the first book to examine the verse produced by Tudor and Stuart monarchs eight Renaissance scholars demonstrate how monarchs used verse to reflect on their monarchic status and to assert royal policy As almost all of the poetry of these regal authors is inaccessible the volume includes a selection of their verse in modernized and newly edited texts offering an ideal study volume for specialists and the classroom The contributors examine the nexus of poetry and power from an unconventional New Historicist perspective from that of the person in power who writes poetry rather than that of the suitor of power Their approaches to the subject are interdisciplinary combining literary studies women's studies history the history of sexuality and manuscript studies

Literature Criticism from 1400 to 1800, 2007 The Coach Marguerite (d'Angoulême, reine de Navarre.), Hilda Dale, 1999 These two important contrasting poems one secular the other religious give some idea of the creative powers of one of the most outstanding women of the Renaissance in Europe As sister of Francis I and later Queen of Navarre she played an important role in politics and through her patronage of men of letters and theologians as well as her own writings she made a significant contribution to the intellectual and religious life of her time After her death in 1549 her collection of tales the Heptameron continued to be read but she was barely remembered as a poet until the manuscript of her longest and greatest poem Les Prisons was discovered and published in 1896 by Abel Lefranc In the last half century increasing academic interest and the publication of scholarly editions of her poems ensure better appreciation of the Queen's gifts as a poet and visionary It is hoped that these translations in English verse like that of Les Prisons may appeal to readers who could be daunted by the original French Medieval Feminist Newsletter ,1997 Archiv Für Reformationsgeschichte ,2009 Critical Tales John D. Lyons,Mary B. McKinley,1993 Provocative and wide ranging appealing to specialists in numerous fields Critical Tales is the first collective volume of studies in English on the Heptameron Evaluating Shelley Timothy Clark,Jerrold E. Hogle,1996 This book argues that Shelley was both ahead of and in tune with his time and ours Romance Languages Annual ,1993
