Mirroring the Past On Cho Ng,Q. Edward Wang,2005-01-01 China is known for its deep veneration of history Far more than a record of the past history to the Chinese is the magister vitae teacher of life the storehouse of moral lessons and bureaucratic precedents Mirroring the Past presents a comprehensive history of traditional Chinese historiography from antiquity to the mid qing period Organized chronologically the book traces the development of historical thinking and writing in Imperial China beginning with the earliest forms of historical consciousness and ending with adumbrations of the fundamentally different views engendered by mid nineteenth century encounters with the West The historiography of each era is explored on two levels first the gathering of material and the writing and production of narratives to describe past events second the thinking and reflecting on meanings and patterns of the past Significantly the book embeds within this chronological structure integrated views of Chinese historiography bringing to light the purposive didactic and normative uses of the past authors lay bare the ingenious ways in which Chinese scholars extracted truth from events and reveal how schemas and philosophies of history were constructed and espoused They highlight the dynamic nature of Chinese historiography revealing that historical works mapped the contours of Chinese civilization not for the sake of understanding history as disembodied and theoretical learning but for the pragmatic purpose of guiding the world by mirroring the past in all its splendor and squalor

The Weaponized Camera in the Middle East Liat Berdugo, 2021-01-14 Drawing on unprecedented access to the video archives of B'Tselem an Israeli NGO that distributes cameras to Palestinians living in the West Bank East Jerusalem and the Gaza Strip Liat Berdugo lays out an argument for a visual studies approach to videographic evidence in Israel Palestine Using video stills as core material it discusses the politics of videographic evidence in Israel Palestine by demonstrating that the conflict is one that has produced an inequality of visual rights The book highlights visual surveillance and counter surveillance at the citizen level how Palestinians originally filmed to shoot back at Israelis who were armed with shooting power via weapons as the occupying force It also traces how Israeli private citizens began filming back at Palestinians with their own cameras including personal cell phone cameras thus creating a simultaneous echoing counter surveillance Complicating the notion that visual evidence alone can secure justice The Weaponized Camera in The Middle East asks how what is seen but also who is seeing affects how conflicts are visually recorded Drawing on over 5 000 hours of footage only a fraction of which is easily accessible to the public domain this book offers a unique perspective on the strategies and battlegrounds of the Israel Palestine conflict The Victorian Railways Magazine ,1924 A Mirror to France Ford Madox Ford, 1926 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science ,1883 Dramatic Mirror of Motion Pictures and the Stage ,1917
