Miseducation Of The West:

The Miseducation of the West Joe Kincheloe, Shirley R. Steinberg, 2004-06-30 The Miseducation of the West examines the ways in which educational institutions such as media and schools have shaped Western views of Islam. The nature of these messages tells readers as much if not more about Western self images as they do about Islam and Islamic peoples. Quickly emerging is a Western perspective on the other. Westerners found easy justification for the colonial conquest of many Islamic lands. In the 18th, 19th and early 20th centuries England, France and to a lesser extent Russia colonized much of the Muslim world with the United States entering the picture after World War II. Economic colonialization, the oil business, interference with various governments and the way these events and people are represented in the formal curriculum of schools and the informal curriculum of the media are central dimensions of this work. The contemporary expression of these stories involve the Bush administration's and its conservative allies' efforts to teach the nation about the true meaning of 9/11 and Islamic terrorism. In various reports, conservative organizations with close ties to the Bush White House present forceful views of what historical concepts should be taught in U.S. schools. As Joe L. Kincheloe states in his thoughtful introduction, these efforts represent a return to a 1954 view of America as the bearer of the democratic torch to the anti-democratic forces of the world. A critical education must counter such tendencies and work to conceptualize 9/11 in a variety of contexts. The essayists in this book write with different voices from diverse viewpoints contributing to a discussion that will not end for years to come.

Muslim Voices in School, 2009-01-01 This book is a collection of readable, accessible, compelling, varied, voiced, passionate, real, textured, multi-faceted, hybrid, fearless, fearful, cautious, bold, modest, and inspired accounts of living Islam in relation to mainstream schooling in the West. The book helps to make the diverse experiences of Muslim students from elementary through university student through professor both contextual and complex. The politics and education about Islam, Muslims, Arabs, Turks, Iranians, and all that is associated with the West's popular imagination of the monolithic Middle East has long been framed within problematics. The goal of this book is to push back against the reductive mainstream narratives told about Muslim and Middle Eastern heritage students for generations if not centuries in mainstream schools. The chapters are each authored by Muslim acculturated scholars. This book will be of interest to teachers, administrators, students, and scholars. As well, the content is suited to fields of study including ethnic studies, critical multicultural education, anti-oppression approaches to education, curriculum studies, social issues in education, social contexts of education, and qualitative research in education. WINNER of the National Association for Multicultural Education's 2010 Philip C. Chinn book award.

Studies in Symbolic Interaction Norman K.
