Reseña de "Misiones, economía y sociedad: la frontera chaqueña del noroeste argentino en el siglo XIX" de Ana Teruel Gastón Gordillo,2006      Misiones, economía y sociedad Ana A. Teruel,2005      Economía y sociedad en Sinaloa, 1591-1900 Benito Ramírez Meza,1993      Economía, sociedad y territorio ,2004      Población y sociedad ,2001      New World of Gain Brian P. Owensby,2021-12-21 In the centuries before Europeans crossed the Atlantic social and material relations among the indigenous Guaran people of present day Paraguay were based on reciprocal gift giving But the Spanish and Portuguese newcomers who arrived in the sixteenth century seemed interested in the Guaran only to advance their own interests either through material exchange or by getting the Guaran to serve them This book tells the story of how Europeans felt empowered to pursue individual gain in the New World and how the Guaran people confronted this challenge to their very way of being Although neither Guaran nor Europeans were positioned to grasp the larger meaning of the moment their meeting was part of a global sea change in human relations and the nature of economic exchange Brian P Owensby uses the centuries long encounter between Europeans and the indigenous people of South America to reframe the notion of economic gain as a historical development rather than a matter of human nature Owensby argues that gain the pursuit of individual material self interest must be understood as a global development that transformed the lives of Europeans and non Europeans wherever these two encountered each other in the great European expansion spanning the sixteenth to nineteenth centuries      Historia del Paraguay Ignacio Talesca,2015-08-01 Una obra dirigida a estudiantes docentes y a todas aquellas personas que desean tener en un solo volumen una narración moderna y gil de la historia del Paraguay

S. Sarreal,2014-06-11 The thirty Guaran missions of the R o de la Plata were the largest and most prosperous of all the Catholic missions established throughout the frontier regions of the Americas to convert acculturate and incorporate indigenous peoples and their lands into the Spanish and Portuguese empires But between 1768 and 1800 the mission population fell by almost half and the economy became insolvent This unique socioeconomic history provides a coherent and comprehensive explanation for the missions operation and decline providing readers with an understanding of the material changes experienced by the Guaran in their day to day lives Although the mission economy funded operations sustained the population and influenced daily routines scholars have not focused on this important aspect of Guaran history primarily producing studies of religious and cultural change This book employs mission account books letters and other archival materials to trace the Guaran mission work regime and to examine how the Guaran shaped the mission economy These materials enable the author to poke holes in longheld beliefs about Jesuit mission management and offer original arguments regarding the Bourbon reforms that ultimately made the missions unsustainable

Heritage and Its Missions Cristóbal Gnecco, Adriana Schmidt Dias, 2025-03-04 Explores how heritage discourses and local publics interact at Catholic mission sites in the southwestern United States northern Mexico and the Southern Cone Interdisciplinary in scope and classed under the name critical heritage studies Heritage and Its Missions makes extensive use of ethnographic perspectives to examine heritage not as a collection of inert things upon which a general historical interest is centered but as a series of active meanings that have consequences in the social political and economic arenas This approach considers the places of interaction between heritage discourses and local publics as constructed spaces where the very materiality of the social and the political unfolds Heritage and Its Missions brings together researchers from several countries interested in the pre republican Catholic missions in the Americas as heritage Each essay discusses the past and current heritage meanings applied to a specific mission by national and multicultural states local Indigenous and non Indigenous communities international heritage institutions and scholars They then address how heritage actors produce knowledge from their positioned perspectives how different actors collectives communities and publics relate to them how heritage representations are deployed and contested as social facts and how different conceptions of heritage collide collaborate and intersperse to produce the meanings around which heritage struggles unfold
