BAMONIMAMBO (The Witnesses): Rediscovering DR CONGO and BRITISH ISLES Common History Norbert X & Deo MBU-MPUTU & KATYA KASEREKA, Belgian Military Forces in the Congo Stephen Rookes, 2022-07-21 Though the dynamics of the Congo Crisis have received and continue to receive a good deal of literary and scholarly attention missing from the canon of work on military forces in the Congo is a study of the Force Publique a paramilitary police force established by King Leopold II to secure the Congo Free State and to protect a vast geographical swath of Central Africa that had become his own personal possession following the Berlin Conference of 1884-1885 In many ways the absence of any study on the origins of the Force Publique to its dissolution in 1960 means that our knowledge surrounding the history of the Belgian Congo and the modern day Democratic Republic of the Congo is incomplete Indeed it is possible to trace the origins of rebellion in the Congo Crisis 1960-1967 back to the Batetela Rebellions that took place in the Congo Free State in the 1890s and early 1900s and to link them with a succession of anti Belgian popular uprisings that took place in the Congo up to the time of the Congo's independence Moreover a revolt by NCOs of the Force Publique was one of the sparks that plunged the Congo into crisis in early July 1960 It would be wrong to say nonetheless that the geographical extent of this volume the first of two on Belgian military forces in the Congo is limited within the boundaries of the Congo Free State and the Belgian Congo through descriptions of military encounters in Africa in the late 1890s and First and Second World Wars the history of the Force Publique is extended into a study of war in the Sudan East Africa and in Ethiopia For aviation enthusiasts this volume is significant in that its objective is to provide a history of the development of air travel to and from the Belgian Congo in addition to examining the evolution of military air forces in the colony Again we can link the Force Publique's air branch to the Congo Crisis as a number of its pilots and aircraft served to form the basis of the Katangan Air Force and the Congolese Air Force two forces that were highly influential in deciding the future of the Congo after its independence The first volume of Belgian Military Forces in the Congo is illustrated throughout with photographs and includes specially commissioned color artworks of the weapons soldiers and aircraft of the Force Publique AF Press Clips, 1967-07 The New Congo Collection Emil Torday, 1913 The Europa World Year Book 2003 Europa Publications, 2003 First published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company Africa South of the Sahara 2003 Europa Publications, 2002-10-31 A one volume library of essential and comprehensive data on all the countries of sub-Saharan Africa including essays on regional issues statistical surveys and directories of invaluable contact names and addresses

Dancing in the Glory of Monsters Jason K. Stearns, 2012-03-27 A meticulously researched and comprehensive Financial Times history of the devastating war in the heart of Africa's Congo with first hand accounts of the continent's worst conflict in modern times At the heart of Africa is the Congo a country the size of Western Europe bordering nine other nations that since 1996 has been wracked by a brutal war in which millions have died In Dancing in the Glory of Monsters renowned political activist and researcher Jason K Stearns has written a compelling and deeply reported narrative of how Congo became a failed state that collapsed into a war of retaliatory massacres Stearns brilliantly describes the key perpetrators many of whom he met personally and highlights the nature of the political system that brought these people to power as well as the moral decisions with which the war confronted them Now updated with a new introduction Dancing in the Glory of Monsters tells the full story of Africa's Great War Congressional Record United States Congress, The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789-1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824-1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833-1873 ~The new Congo Tom Marvel, 1948 NCN Report, 1997-10 The Congo Free State and the New Imperialism Kevin Grant, 2016-09-02 This book introduces students to the history of the Congolese peoples and the Congo Free State ruled by King Leopold II of Belgium between 1885 and 1908 It illuminates central issues in the study of the era of the new imperialism and challenges students to analyze a variety of different kinds of sources in building their own historical arguments about the period The introduction provides an overview of the Congolese peoples the environment in which they lived and the process through which the Congo Free State was established and developed The documents invite students to explore the history of the Congo Free State through speeches international treaties oral histories investigative depositions on atrocities visual texts official and private correspondence parliamentary debates and published exposés Document headnotes a chronology and analytical questions help students to place the Congo Free State in the context of not only the new imperialism but also its larger global context Trapped in the Congo Drama Raymond M. Ngoma, 2013 This book tells about the real drama that people of both Congo have gone through Until now things haven't changed yet especially in the Democratic Republic of Congo where the situation in the eastern part of the country is still the same The war is still maintained by those who are helping rebel groups to invade the DR Congo in one sole objective the illegal exploitation of natural resources of the DR Congo By helping corrupt dictators stay in power and by always letting rival army groups fight in the DR Congo multinational corporations supported by strong western governments can continue their illegal exploitation of natural resources of the DR Congo Some of the consequences of this situation are exactly what the author describes in this book women are being raped over and over children are becoming orphans because their parents are getting killed in the war and people are destabilized because they are running away from the war zones Also the corruption that is generalized makes people live in very poor conditions People who are maintaining this kind of situation in the DR Congo do not care about the social living of the population otherwise what a five years old girl orphan with infirmity in the leg living by herself on the street has done wrong to be punished in this manner Clearly minerals and other natural resources are the source of the suffering and misery of the DR Congo people But even when this country has a lot of minerals this shouldn't be a reason to treat people less than animals And about those natural resources which they dearly need why can't they just find another way to deal with people of the DR Congo so they can all benefit from them without killing many people like animals Let be human beings and respect God the Creator who gave us this planet Earth to live together in peace and harmony The New Congo Tom Marvel,1948 Donors Begin to Aid the New Congo Carole Collins,1998 Congo, the Birth of a New Nation Jules Archer,1970 Discusses the history of the Congo and its situation today The Congo Slave State Edmund Dene Morel,1903 Le nouveau Congo (The new Congo) Tom Marvel,1958 A Congo Chronicle Bogumil Jewsiewicki,Donatien Dibwe dia Mwembu,Museum for African Art (New York, N.Y.),1999 The New World of Central Africa Mrs. Henry Grattan Guinness,1890 The Congo Darlene Geis,1961
