21st-Century

Counselors Camden Flath, 2014-10-21 Many people around the country deal with problems of mental illness and substance abuse as well as trouble with finding work communicating with family members or being bullied at school The demand for counselors and psychologists who can give support to individuals dealing with these issues and their families is on the rise The young adults of today will be the job force of tomorrow so choosing a career that will best fit with the needs of the changing world will be important to job satisfaction and a successful life With the vast array of career and job options it will also be important for young adults to understand which work will be the best match for their interests talents goals and personality types Certain careers are expected to gain importance within the early decades of the twenty first century According to the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics employment in counseling is expected to grow faster than the average rate for all occupations As attitudes change about mental health addiction and emotional well being particularly in the level of open discussion surrounding these topics more people are turning to counselors and psychologists for assistance Are you ready to help

Grace-Based Counseling Richard A. Fowler, EdD, Natalie Ford PhD, 2021-08-03 You speak God's truth when you counsel But do you also communicate His grace The Christian counselor or pastor helps people process their pain Too often a client leaves the counselor's office with feelings of shame They understand what they did wrong But they've missed the grace of God that makes things right again Christian counselors Richard Fowler and Natalie Ford offer a model that blends the truths of Scripture the science of psychology and the hope of the gospel It includes New grace based counseling model Detailed application of the model with case studies Toolbox with surveys assessments and counseling helps A Christian counseling model can't just be about admonishment That approach only leads to shame and human efforts that are doomed to fail But when the gospel is brought to bear in the counseling relationship the counselor becomes an instrument of grace in the hands of a faithful God
