The Transformation of Citizenship, Volume 3 Juergen Mackert, Bryan S. Turner, 2017-03-16 This volume Struggle Resistance and Violence examines the fact that all over the world the rights of citizens have come under enormous pressure and addresses the many ways in which people are making claims against both autocratic and democratic authority Without any doubt rule breaking riots and violent upheavals have become an aspect of political struggles for citizenship The book takes up a conflict perspective that directs attention to these recent phenomena It stresses the necessity of a careful analysis of resistance and violence as critical factors for coming to terms with social conflicts for citizenship from Europe to South America as well as the Near East the Far East and the Arab World

Language of Space and Form James F. Eckler, 2012-01-04 A unique graphical guide for using architectural terminology to jump start the design process This design studio companion presents architectural terms with special emphasis on using these terms to generate design ideas It highlights the architectural thinking behind the terminology and helps readers gain a thorough understanding of space and form Featuring double page spreads with over 190 illustrated entries the book fully explores analyzes and cross references key elements and techniques used in architecture and interior design Each entry first defines the common meaning of the term then goes on to discuss in detail its generative possibilities Scenarios involving the use of a design principle or the way it might be experienced further aid students in developing strategies for their own design In addition Language of Space and Form Divides entries into five categories for quick access to concepts including process and generation organization and ordering operation and experience objects and assemblies and representation and communication Addresses studio practice from the ground up encouraging readers to develop creativity and critical thinking as they develop a design process Offers supplemental online learning resources including exercises that correspond to the book A must have reference for professionals and students in architecture and interior design Language of Space and Form is destined to become a classic introduction to design thinking

Theorizing Visual Studies James Elkins, 2013 This forward thinking collection brings together over sixty essays that invoke images to summon interpret and argue with visual studies and its neighboring fields such as art history media studies visual anthropology critical theory cultural studies and aesthetics The product of a multi year collaboration between graduate students from around the world spearheaded by James Elkins this one of a kind anthology is a truly international interdisciplinary point of entry into cutting edge visual studies research The book is fluid in relation to disciplines it is frequently inventive in relation to guiding theories it is unpredictable in its allegiance and interest in the past of the discipline reflecting the ongoing growth of visual studies

Constructing Singapore Public Space Limin Hee, 2016-09-21 This book presents possible alternatives and interpretations to the well established notion in the mostly western discourse on public space The discourse on public space as understood in the democratic rationalist tradition when applied to the Singaporean public space would offer much criticism but would not be adequate in identifying alternative processes that allow for transformative potentials in public space Thus said the objectives of this book are 1 To develop a conceptual frame of reference to construct the discourse on Singapore public space 2 To form a preliminary model of Singapore public space through analyzing case studies 3 To understand the modes methods of production and representation of these public spaces within the rapidly changing urban context 4 To situate these constructions of public space and its possible trajectories within the larger discourse on public space and to examine the viability of such a construction and interpretive model of public space

Creating Digital Literacy Spaces for Multilingual Writers Joel Bloch, 2021-01-27 This book argues for the value of digital literacy in the multilingual writing classroom Against the background of huge changes in literacy practices prompted by online communication and a growing acceptance of a broader definition of academic literacy that encompasses multimodality the book examines the relationship between digital and print literacies and addresses the design of literacy spaces for multilingual classrooms The author critically evaluates the latest developments in the use of technology in multilingual writing spaces and focuses on the role of teachers in their design it also addresses areas that are not often discussed in relation to multilingual students from blogging to publishing and intellectual property The book will help teachers meet the challenges created by rapidly shifting technology as well as making an innovative contribution to research on multilingual writing classrooms

Stories of Practice: Tourism Policy and Planning Dr Dianne Dredge, Professor John Jenkins, 2012-11-28 Analyses of contemporary tourism planning and policymaking practice at local to global scales is lacking and there is an urgent need for research that informs theory and practice Illustrated with a set of cohesive theoretically informed international case studies constructed through storytelling this volume expands readers knowledge about how tourism planning and policymaking takes place Challenging traditional notions of tourism planning and policy processes this book also provides critical insights into how theoretical concepts and frameworks are applied in tourism planning and policy making practice at different spatial scales The book engages readers in the intellectual political moral and ethical issues that often surround tourism policymaking and planning highlighting the great value of reflective learning grounded in the social sciences and revealing the complexity of tourism planning and policy

Public Space Stephen Carr, 1992 The authors offer a perspective of how to integrate public space and public life They contend that three critical human dimensions should guide the process of design and management of public space the users essential needs their spatial rights and the meanings they seek
