ENVIRONMENTAL AGE

MAX NICHOLSON

Foreword by HRH The Duke of Edinburgh

New Environmental Age

Phil Macnaghten, John Urry

New Environmental Age:

The New Environmental Age Max Nicholson, 1987 The message of this book is that a concern for environmental issues no longer needs justification. Its aim is to put environmental conservation into perspective by looking at its achievements, failures and problems and by examining the challenges and opportunities it faces

The New Environmental Age R. K. Sapru, Shyama Bhardwaj, 1990-01-01

Spaceship Earth in the Environmental Age, 1960-1990 Sabine Höhler, 2015-10-06

The idea of the earth as a vessel in space came of age in an era shaped by space travel and the Cold War. Höhler's study brings together technology, science and ecology to explore the way this latter-day ark was invoked by politicians.

environmentalists, cultural historians, writers of science fiction and many others across three decades

Environmental Politics and Institutional Change Elim Papadakis, 1996-11-18

An examination of the responsiveness of Australian political institutions to environmental concerns

Contested Natures Phil Macnaghten, John Urry, 1998-05-21 Demonstrating that all notions of nature are inextricably entangled in different forms of social life, the text elaborates the many ways in which the apparently natural world has been produced from within particular social practices. These are analyzed in terms of different senses, different times and the production of distinct spaces, including the local, the national and the global. The authors emphasize the importance of cultural understandings of the physical world, highlighting the ways in which these have been routinely misunderstood by academic and policy discourses. They show that popular conceptions of and attitudes to nature are often contradictory and that there are no simple ways of prevailing upon people to

Politics and the Environment Michael Howes, Griffith University, Australia, 2013-10-31 An evenhanded, realistic and thoughtful approach to identifying environmental problems and management goals.

Stephen Zavestoski, Assistant Professor of Sociology and Environmental Studies, University of San Francisco. A theoretically advanced yet accessible treatment of environmental governance, drawing on an impressive range of material to investigate the roles of states and industries in addressing environmental problems.

Harriet Bulkeley, Department of Geography, University of Durham. Written in the vein of critical optimism, this book is pitched at the right level to inspire people trying to make pragmatic changes to their governmental and industrial systems, trying to make a difference where it counts.

Timothy Doyle, Associate Professor in Geographical and Environmental Studies, University of Adelaide. What is the future for our environment? We face serious risks of major industrial accidents and global environmental degradation, yet new technological developments promise a standard of living unimaginable only a few generations ago.

Michael Howes outlines the ways in which governments have responded to environmental risk over the past four decades. He examines the key environmental issues and the claims of enviro-sceptics, offering a new strategy for making major administrative decisions in the face of uncertainty. He explains how governments have developed environmental policy and the ongoing tensions between science, industry, the state, social movements and electoral politics. In a clear, straightforward manner, he shows how to use the work of theorists Ulrich Beck, Michel Foucault and John Dryzek to analyse environmental policy He also develops a new method of measuring the effectiveness of environmental governance in developed countries Howes draws on a wide array of sources from business government environment groups academic research and NGOs to illustrate his arguments with comparisons between the environmental policies of the UK the USA and Australia

Environmental Governance for Sustainable Development Uma Nabhi,2023-04-10 This book studies the role of the United Nations Environment Programme UNEP as an advocate for greater environmental responsibility and analyses the major achievements and outcomes of two landmark conferences Stockholm 1972 and Rio 1992 which set the agenda for the future role of the UNEP It discusses the UNEP's evolution objectives and the problems of differing perspectives within its ability to deal with environmental challenges its skill in successfully carrying out the mandate and contributing to the pursuit of environmental security The book also looks at five developing countries of South Asia namely India Bangladesh Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka to study the role of the South Asia Co-operative Environment Programme SACEP which plays an active role in the management of environmental issues and constitutes an important landmark in regional cooperation in South Asia The author evaluates the contributions of National Conservation Strategies not only in creating environmental awareness but also in strengthening environmental governance architecture by integrating Millennium Development Goals and Sustainable Development Goals into the development planning of these South Asian countries under study Drawing on in depth research and interviews this book will be of interest to students teachers researchers policymakers and strategic analysts working in the fields of environment studies sustainable development environmental science and policy environmental law and governance geography politics and international affairs

Planning for the Planet Simone Schleper,2019-07-12 During the 1960s and 1970s rapidly growing environmental awareness and concern created unprecedented demand for ecological expertise and novel challenges for ecological advocacy groups such as the International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources IUCN This book reveals how despite their vast scientific knowledge and their attempts to incorporate socially relevant themes IUCN experts inevitably struggled to make global schemes for nature conservation a central concern for UNESCO UNEP and other intergovernmental organizations

Environment and Society Subhash Sharma,Kshipra Sharma,2023-03-28 This book presents a comprehensive lucid and accessible approach to environmental sociology It traces the origin of environmental sociology and examines the realist constructionist debate in ecology for a holistic exploration of the field The volume presents a step by step systematic approach to the study of environmental sociology Includes case studies from Asia Africa Europe and the Americas and introduces theoretical perspectives from Asia Africa and South America to provide a more comprehensive view of the field Has separate chapters on sustainable development and climate change Discusses ecological movements in India and highlights environmental issues of the Global South A key text for undergraduates postgraduates and civil services aspirants this book goes beyond western scholarship to include indigenous approaches to the field It will be indispensable for
