New French Thought:

New French Thought Mark Lilla, 1994 The past fifteen years in France have seen a remarkable flourishing of new work in political philosophy. This anthology brings into English for the first time essays by some of the best young French political thinkers writing today, including Marcel Gauchet, Pierre Manent, Luc Ferry and Alain Renaut. The central theme of these essays is liberal democracy, its nature, its development, its problems, its fundamental legitimacy. Although these themes are familiar to American and British readers, the French approach to them, which is profoundly historical and rooted in the tradition of continental philosophy, is quite different from our customary one. Included in this collection is a series of reconsiderations of French critics of liberal society: Lévi Strauss, Foucault, Bourdieu and of classical European liberals: Kant, Constant, Tocqueville. The continuing controversies over the nature of the modern era and the place of religion within it play a central role throughout the collection. The book includes a debate on the foundations of human rights and on the nature of a liberal political order. The concluding section presents some of the new sociological writing on modern individualism, its pleasures and its discontents. An introduction by Mark Lilla provides the historical background to the revival of French political thought about liberalism and offers an analysis of what American and English readers might learn from it. Originally published in 1994, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. The Columbia History of Twentieth-century French Thought Lawrence D. Kritzman, Brian J. Reilly, 2006. Unrivaled in its scope and depth, The Columbia History of Twentieth-Century French Thought assesses the intellectual figures, movements, and publications that helped shape and define fields as diverse as history and historiography, psychoanalysis, film, literary theory, cognitive and life sciences, literary criticism, philosophy, and economics. More than two hundred entries by leading intellectuals discuss developments in French thought on such subjects as pacifism, fashion, gastronomy, technology, and urbanism. Contributors include prominent French thinkers, many of whom have played an integral role in the development of French thought, and American, British, and Canadian scholars who have been vital in the dissemination of French ideas.

French Theory in America Sylvère Lotringer, Sande Cohen, 2001. What does it mean to do theory in America? In what ways has French Theory changed American intellectual and artistic life? How different is it from what French intellectuals themselves conceived and what does all this tell us about American intellectual life? Is French Theory still a significant force in America, raising conceptual questions not easily answered? In this volume of new work, including the French writers Julia Kristeva, Jacques Derrida, Jean Baudrillard, and Gilles Deleuze, as well as essays by Sylvère Lotringer and Sande Cohen, Mario Biagioli, Elie During, Chris Kraus, Alison Ginteras, and Kriss Ravetto, among others French theorists assess the impact and reception of their work in America and American based critics account for their effects in different areas of cultural criticism and art over the last thirty years Educational Philosophy and New French Thought David R. Cole, Joff P. N. Bradley, 2019-02-14 Contemporary French philosophy perhaps reached a high point during the 1970s with the likes of Gilles Deleuze, Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida. Since that time thinkers such as Francois Laruelle, Bernard Stiegler, Quentin Meillassoux and Catherine Malabou have continued on in this strong tradition while deepening and rethinking many of the parameters that have made contemporary French philosophy so powerful and useful for understanding the contemporary condition. For example new French thought has reengaged with the relationships between thought, science and universal commercial interests and has investigated purposefully the possibilities of post capitalist theorising. This book while not exhaustive takes the most pertinent aspects of new French thought and applies them to the philosophy of education. In contemporary philosophies of education the repetitions of evidence based and neoliberal theories abound. This book serves as an antidote to the levelling off and exhaustion in thought that a capitalist takeover implies while keeping sight of the crucial relationships between science, the arts and metaphysical speculation. Furthermore this book represents a thoroughgoing thinking through of philosophy of education's relationships with neuroscience, new scientific paradigms, feminist materialisms, anti-correlationism, technology and the socius and as such constitutes a new philosophy of education. This book was originally published as a special issue of Educational Philosophy and Theory The Frankfurt School Revisited Richard Wolin, 2013-05-13 This volume is a collection of essays by Richard Wolin, a leading political theorist and intellectual historian. It is the follow up to Wolin's two recent widely acclaimed books Heidegger's Children and The Seduction of Unreason. In those books he explored the legacy of Martin Heidegger and his impact on some of his most influential and notable students. He dealt particularly with the effect that Heidegger's subsequent embrace of fascism and National Socialism had on these students. Delving further in his next book, Wolin explored the question of why philosophers and intellectuals have been drawn to antiliberal, antidemocratic fascism. The essays in this book are focused on European Political Thought, particularly with figures associated with the Frankfurt School. The collection represents a virtual who's who of European political thinkers with essays on Walter Benjamin, Adorno, Marcuse, Arendt, Heidegger, Weber, Jaspers, and Carl Schmitt. Moving beyond these thinkers and those books, this collection will also include essays on contemporary political issues such as post-communist revolutions, human rights, global democracy, the revival of republicanism and religion and public life. Educational Philosophy and New French Thought

The New French Philosophy Ian James, 2014-02-14 This book gives a critical assessment of key developments in contemporary French philosophy highlighting the diverse ways in which recent French thought has moved beyond the philosophical positions and arguments which have been widely associated with the terms post structuralism and postmodernism These developments are assessed through a close comparative reading of the work of seven contemporary thinkers Jean Luc Marion Jean Luc Nancy Bernard Stiegler Catherine Malabou Jacques Rancié Alain Badiou and Fran ois Laruelle The book situates the writing of each philosopher in relation to earlier traditions of French thought In differing ways these philosophers decisively distance themselves from the linguistic paradigm which dominated so much twentieth century thought in order to rethink philosophical conceptions of materiality worldliness shared embodied existence and human agency or subjectivity They thereby open the way for a radical renewal of the claims possibilities and transformative power of philosophical thinking itself This book will be an indispensable text for students of philosophy and for anyone interested in current developments in philosophy and social thought
