Media Law and Regulation in the European Union Manny Paraschos, 1998 Media Regulation in the European Union presents an anthology of the most important laws and regulations affecting journalism and the media in the European Union It also covers relevant decisions of the European Court of Human Rights These laws are presented in historical sociopolitical and media contexts and are compared with their equivalent in the United States The book generally looks at national country specific legislations and transnational European Union wide regulations Specifically the book addresses constitutional press or expression provisions personal protections morality and security issues access to information and secrecy Considerable attention is paid to the regulation of broadcasting and to the rules governing those who own the media and those who help sustain them advertisers and the advertising industry The book s last chapter discusses media self regulation and includes the codes of ethics of the professional journalists organizations of the European Union member nations

Journalism Worthy of the Name Herdís Thorgeirsdóttir, 2005-06-01 The subject of this study is freedom within the press the nature and limits of the protection afforded to the journalistic imparting process which has been a neglected area of research The analysis draws on the classical defenders of freedom of speech Milton and Mill to show that at the dawn of the 21st century the intertwined alliance between big business and public authorities resulting in the widespread phenomena of self censorship within the media constitutes an almost insurmountable obstacle Instead of enlightening the public and inspiring the individual the press may be contributing to an inert public and individual cowardice antithetical to the objectives of human dignity and democracy The core of the problem is that prima facie the infringement of freedom within the media is not exercised on legal premises and cannot therefore be solved within the legal framework The operation of the press in society is conditioned by three types of regulation legal regulation market regulation and self regulation Legal regulation does not adequately presuppose the impact of the latter as it is based on the assumption that press freedom is mainly a negative liberty The book explores the affirmative side of Article 10 of the European Convention on Human Rights to guarantee press freedom that is not merely illusory but practical and effective Convention jurisprudence has not only influenced the domestic courts of the Contracting Parties but also the legislators of the Member States In an era of globalization dominant media operators wield power in their own domestic markets to impede national regulators in adopting interventionist media policies to secure journalistic freedoms The Convention jurisprudence represents a kind of European ius commune which is here set in the context of an analysis reflecting the problems and values at issue and offering recommendations to alleviate a situation which threatens democratic ideals and public spirited journalism Effective Public Relations Scott M. Cutlip, Allen H. Center, Glen M. Broom, 1994

Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print, 1998 Electronic Media Management, Revised Peter Pringle, Michael F Starr, 2013-06-26 The fifth edition of a classic text features important updates that reflect the enormous changes that have taken place in recent years the Internet as an important information transmission format that is here to stay and convergence among media This edition features thorough discussions on the Internet and convergence as well as reflects the latest information on broadcast and cable regulations and policies It also includes a fresh batch of case studies and study questions As in previous editions this book also covers management theory audience analysis broadcast promotion and marketing

Media Ownership and Control in the Age of Convergence International Institute of Communications, 1996 Telecommunications broadcasting and the print media continue to merge in technical functional and organisational terms This book examines media ownership policy and regulation to explore how the global media will be controlled and by whom

Mass Media Writing Gail Baker-Woods, Kay Ford, Ken Keller, Joe Plumley, Jr., Julie E. Dodd, G. Paul Smeyak, 1998 Because journalism and mass media students need and benefit from writing skills for print based media this text first provides a strong foundation in newspaper writing techniques Following chapters cover other media writing styles and discuss how and why these writing styles differ from and resemble newspaper writing A final chapter discusses legal aspects of writing including libel invasion of privacy and First Amendment rights Critical Analysis of the Media Law in Zimbabwe Nkosi Ndlela, 2003 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1996 Broadcast News Mitchell Stephens, 1993 On news broadcasting

Matters of Fact Daniel Wayne Lehman, 1997 Explores the theory of nonfictional narrative as implicated text arguing that an implicated reading becomes all the more valuable and troubling if we explore some distinctions between nonfiction and fiction at the level on which the narrative interacts with historical experience and if we examine that interaction for its practices and ideology Subjects include the nonfiction narrator in scripted and conscripted history implicating the author in the narratives of Tom Wolfe and John Reed and over the edge of genre in the case of Private O'Brien Paper edition unseen 18
