Major Trends in Formative Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2002 The main foci of this collection are the history of Judaism with stress on its social doctrines and cultural traits and the comparison of Judaism to its near companion in time and intellect Christianity PART ONE A summary of the three volumes of Social Teaching of Rabbinic Judaism PART TWO The history of religion depends for perspective and insight upon the comparative study of religions that sustain such comparison Christianity sharing Scriptures with Judaism presents an obvious opportunity PART THREE An evaluation of the Talmud of Babylonia PART FOUR five book review essays on recent intellectually ambitious exercises in the study of ancient Judaism

Major Trends in Formative Judaism: Category-formation, literature, and philosophy Jacob Neusner, 1983 Feeding the Five Thousand Roger David Aus, 2012-07-10 The story of Jesus feeding the five thousand is found in all four Gospels and is told in two of them twice Roger David Aus primarily explores the many facets of early Palestinian Judaism which inform the story especially in regard to the miracle worker Elisha He describes four major motifs in the narrative as well as the Markan and Johannine redaction In addition he analyzes the account's Semitic background genre and historicity and its part in a miracle collection The Transformation of Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2011-03-31 Jacob Neusner describes analyzes and interprets the transformation of one system of the Israelite social order by a connected but autonomous successor system He characterizes the successive systems classifying the one as philosophical and the other as religious He explains the categorical account of each and sets forth the outcome of a number of topical studies on the category formations of Rabbinic Judaism with special attention to the social order politics philosophy and economics These systems emerged as 1 autonomous when viewed synchronically 2 connected when seen diachronically and 3 as a continuous construction when seen at the end of their formative age In their successive stages of categorical autonomy connection and finally continuity the three distinct systems may be classified respectively as philosophical religious and theological each one taking over and revising the definitive categories of the former and framing its own fresh generative categories as well The formative history of Judaism is the story of the presentations and re presentations of categorical structures In method it is the exegesis of taxonomy and taxic systems Now after more than two decades Neusner has decided to review the initial statement Since the book summarizes ten years of work from 1980 to 1990 on the Rabbinic category formations of social science politics philosophy and economics in the setting of the law and theology of Rabbinic Judaism from the Mishnah through the Bavli 200 600 C E it seemed well worth the effort to recapitulate the original work The revised introduction explains the omission of theology in his category formation philosophy religion theology Neusner's account of the Bavli produced the decade after this title was completed did not make possible the continuous description of the unfolding of the Rabbinic system The pattern that appealed to Neusner from philosophy to religion to theology has not yet come to a satisfactory account In the twenty years

The Midrash Jacob Neusner, 1994-10-01 The Midrash An Introduction sets forth the way in which Judaism reads the Hebrew Bible In this masterful presentation the reader is introduced to the classics of Jewish Bible interpretation with special attention to the way in which the rabbis of Talmudic times read the Pentateuch the Book of Ruth and Song of Songs The seven Midrash compilations are introduced with a lucid account of their main points accompanied by selections that give the reader a direct encounter in English with the Bible as Judaism understands it The word midrash based on the Hebrew root DaRaSH search means interpretation or exegesis Midrash also more formally refers to the compilations of such interpretations of Scripture As Dr Jacob Neusner explains these compilations reached closure and conclusion in the formative stage of Judaism that is the first seven centuries of the Common Era the time in which the Mishnah ca 200 Talmud of the Land of Israel ca 400 and Talmud of Babylonia ca 600 were written Midrash is not so much about Scripture as it is a subordinate part of Scripture They did not write about Scripture Dr Neusner says They wrote with Scripture much as painters paint with a palette of colors The Midrash An Introduction is the second volume in Dr Jacob Neusner s series of introductory volumes on classical rabbinic literature As with the first volume The Mishnah An Introduction this book offers the layperson a concise description of the religious literature and drawing on Dr Neusner s own translations of the texts walks readers through the selections providing them with firsthand experience with the document itself As Dr Neusner says in his preface to The Midrash An Introduction In these pages I mean to make it possible for readers to know one such compilation from the other and so to begin studying their own Nomination of John Agresto United States. Congress.

Senate. Committee on Governmental Affairs,1987 Formative Judaism, Sixth Series Jacob Neusner,1989 Method and Meaning in Ancient Judaism, Fourth Series Jacob Neusner,1989 Major Trends in Formative Judaism, Second Series Jacob Neusner,1984 Pesahim ,1993 Habakkuk, Jonah, Nahum, and Obadiah in Talmud and Midrash

Jacob Neusner,2007 The Rabbis of classical Judaism in the first six centuries of the Common Era commented on the teachings of ancient Israel s prophets and shaped as much as they were shaped by prophecy They commented on much of the Scriptural heritage and they made it their own This collection of the Rabbinic comments on biblical books makes easily accessible the Rabbinic reading of the prophetic heritage and opens the way to the study of how normative Judaism responded to the challenge of the prophetic writings Tractate Baba Batra ,1994 The Talmud of Babylonia ,1993

Theology in Action Jacob Neusner,2006-08-30 Unlike contemporary culture Rabbinic Judaism s authoritative documents set forth the entire structure of belief and system of behavior in two distinct modes of discourse Halakhic and Aggadic or broadly construed statements of law and lore Theology in Action shows how the Female Leadership in the American Jewish Community Baila Round Shargel,2007-05-30 Bessie Gotsfeld 1888 1962 was the inspired leader and founder of the Mizrachi Woman s Organization of America MWOA Gotsfeld abandoned a comfortable life in New York to live in Mandatory Palestine and conduct the MWOA s business Gotsfeld was driven by a fervent dedication to Orthodox Zionism and modern education especially for girls Her innovations included the establishment of three vocational schools for adolescent girls and two large farm villages that offered religious instruction to girls and boys on an equal basis Every step of Gotsfeld's journey and leadership involved a struggle To realize her goals she had to hold her ground against Mizrachi men and women and centrists Zionists such as Henrietta Szold Organizational independence was crucial to Gotsfeld The fundraising mechanism she set up in New York and her management of resources in Mandatory Palestine and Israel made the MWOA the most successful part of the Mizrachi movement Through her leadership she advanced the cause of religious Zionism in the United States and Israel

Rabbinic Theology and Israelite Prophecy Jacob Neusner, 2008 Rabbinic Judaism affirms the Prophetic heritage and makes it its own Indeed the Rabbis of the formative age and canon of Rabbinic Judaism looked to Prophecy along with the Torah and the Writings to define and sustain their system We may reasonably label the Judaic religious system portrayed in the Rabbinic canon as Prophetic Rabbinic Judaism the Judaism that the Rabbis formed in response to the Prophetic imperatives In this book the author shows how the Rabbis found in Prophecy a source not of contradiction but of conciliation and doctrinal validation Rabbi Neusner answers the question what do we learn about the Rabbinic system from its encounter with the Prophetic books The four principal building blocks of Rabbinic theology addressed here take up symbolism eschatology immanental theology and theological systematics The fifth Halakhah has been addressed in The Rabbis the Law and the Prophets Here Rabbi Neusner takes up these matters and shows how the Rabbis found in Prophecy support for their fundamental principles

The Religious Study of Judaism Jacob Neusner, 1988-12-07 In this volume Dr Neusner explores the history of religious ideas and writings focusing first on the idea of history and second on the conception of a foundation document comprising the Pentateuch and the Mishnah He then moves on to an interpretation of the implications for the history of Judaism of the distinctive and particular character of an important document Sifra a sustained address to the book of Leviticus by sages of the fourth or fifth century BC

Contents Part I The Idea of History in Formative Judaism Part II The Constitution of the Judaism of the Dual Torah Part III Ethics or Ontology in Formative Judaism Part IV From Text to Matrix in the Case of Sifra Part V The University as Locus for Studying the Formative Age of Judaism

Comparative Midrash Jacob Neusner, 2009-04-16 The documentary hypothesis of the Rabbinic canon of late antiquity maintains that complete documents form the smallest whole building blocks of the Rabbinic system These two volumes undertake a concrete exercise in the realization of the documentary hypothesis It compares the rhetorical formal and exegetical traits of two entire kindred documents Then through a side by side chart it compares each component of the two documents treatment of the same extended segment of Scripture Numbers 19 Whole documents are to be described and analyzed through a process of systematic description comparison and contrast What makes the study fresh is that the author compares the two documents of the rabbinic canon that are most alike the two Sifras on Numbers What makes it surprising is the result they have nothing in common Each is autonomous and except for the scriptural foundation systematically shared by both neither intersects in an appreciable measure with the other Volume One Chapters One and Two deals with forms In

Chapter One the author surveys the forms of Sifr to Numbers and identifies and classifies the formal patterns that govern throughout Then with the formal and propositional program of Sifr to Numbers as a base in Chapter Two he does the same with Sifr Zutta to Numbers Volume Two Chapters Three through Five deals with exegesis and systematic comparison of whole segments of documents Chapters Three and Four describe and compare the exegetical patterns of the base documents with special reference to the utilization of the verses of Scripture as foci of coherent discourse In Chapter Five the author compares the treatment of Huqqat that is a single passage of Scripture read by the two commentaries respectively The Treasury of Judaism Jacob Neusner,2008 This is the third volume of a set of anthologies that sets forth the statements of the formative canon of influential Rabbinic Judaism on three large topics the calendar the life cycle and theology Focusing on the seminal period of normative Judaism the editor Jacob Neusner presents in three parts the teachings of Rabbinic Judaism in late antiquity the first six centuries of the Common Era Ancient Israel, Judaism, and Christianity in Contemporary Perspective Jacob Neusner,2006 The late Karl Johan Illman was a professor of Biblical and Judaic studies at Abo Akademi University in bo Turku Finland A beloved and respected figure in the Judeo Christian dialogue and an accomplished scholar of Judaism he is remembered in this memorial volume by leading scholars of Biblical and Judaic studies in Europe and North America
