Trieste Publishing has a massive catalogue of classic book titles Our aim is to provide readers with the highest quality reproductions of fiction and non fiction literature that has stood the test of time The many thousands of books in our collection have been sourced from libraries and private collections around the world The titles that Trieste Publishing has chosen to be part of the collection have been scanned to simulate the original Our readers see the books the same way that their first readers did decades or a hundred or more years ago Books from that period are often spoiled by imperfections that did not exist in the original Imperfections could be in the form of blurred text photographs or missing pages It is highly unlikely that this would occur with one of our books Our extensive quality control ensures that the readers of Trieste Publishing s books will be delighted with their purchase Our staff has thoroughly reviewed every page of all the books in the collection repairing or if necessary rejecting titles that are not of the highest quality This process ensures that the reader of one of Trieste Publishing s titles receives a volume that faithfully reproduces the original and to the maximum degree possible gives them the experience of owning the original work We pride ourselves on not only creating a pathway to an extensive reservoir of books of the finest quality but also providing value to every one of our readers Generally Trieste books are purchased singly on demand however they may also be purchased in bulk Readers interested in bulk purchases are invited to contact us directly to enquire about our tailored bulk rates

The New Makers of Modern Strategy Hal

Brands,2023-05-02 First published by Princeton in 1943 the collection of essays that constituted Makers of Modern Strategy has largely held the field as the key book that studied the means and ends of military power and thought and the historical figures that shaped that history The books in two editions have long been a staple of Princeton s backlist in international politics and strategic studies The first edition edited by Edward Mead Earle and subtitled Military Thought from Machiavelli to Hitler emerged out of a seminar of foreign policy and security experts organized between Princeton and the Institute of Advanced Study in reaction to World War II as a global conflict The subsequent edition edited by Peter Paret then at Stanford University was prepared in the early 1980s and subtitled From Machiavelli to the Nuclear Age In that edition three essays were reprinted from the earlier book four others were revised and the remainder twenty two essays were wholly new to reflect the updates in the field and also how the global political context had changed The two books together are regarded as the founding and leading text in military and strategic studies containing influential essays by many of the best known scholars of the subject The ambition of the new volume is to commission an entirely new edition of this classic reference work with 37 chapters organized into 5 sections covering key military leaders and the most important elements of strategic thinking since Thucydides and Sun Tzu The field of strategic and military history has witnessed an intellectual renaissance in recent decades as the number of strategic challenges faced by the world has grown enormously International politics has also changed The Cold War ended and the Soviet Union disappeared The United States entered a period of unipolarity only to see it challenged by the rise of new powers China in particular Terrorism civil wars so called rogue states insurgency and counter insurgency and cybersecurity all joined a growing list of strategic concerns New technologies promise to upend our understanding of conflict Furthermore scholars have learned more about earlier periods from the classic thinkers of strategy to the struggles of great power war to the dynamics of world politics during the Cold War Finally scholarship on international politics war and peace in the 20th century and after has become increasingly internationalized with the opening of new archives and the incorporation of new perspectives The aim of this volume is to serve as an overview and stimulant to research in this field one that encompasses the broader definitions of strategy in current research reflects the current state of world politics and also takes a more global and less Western perspective Publisher s description Makers of Modern History Sir Edward Cadogan,1970 Trieste Publishing has a massive catalogue of classic book titles Our aim is to provide readers with the highest quality reproductions of fiction and non fiction literature that has stood the test of time The many thousands of books in our collection have been sourced from libraries and private collections around the world The titles that Trieste Publishing has chosen to be part of the collection have been scanned to simulate the original Our readers see the books the same way that their first readers did decades or a hundred or more years ago Books from that period are often spoiled by imperfections that did not exist in the original Imperfections could be in the form of blurred text photographs or missing pages It is highly unlikely that this would occur with one of our books Our extensive quality control ensures that the readers of Trieste Publishing s books will be delighted with their purchase Our staff has thoroughly reviewed every page of all the books in the collection repairing or if necessary rejecting titles that are not of the highest quality This process ensures that the reader of one of Trieste Publishing s titles receives a volume that faithfully reproduces the original and to the maximum degree possible gives them the experience of owning the original work We pride ourselves on not only creating a pathway to an extensive reservoir of books of the finest quality but also providing value to every one of our readers Generally Trieste books are purchased singly on demand however they may also be purchased in bulk Readers interested in bulk purchases are invited to contact us directly to enquire about our tailored bulk rates Makers of Modern History; Three Types, Louis Napoleon, Cavour, Bismarck Edward Cecil George Cadogan,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1905 edition Excerpt BISMARCK It has always been held inexpedient to discuss the actions or to estimate the greatness of any man who has attained to a conspicuous place in the service of his country until a sufficient interval has elapsed after his death both in virtue of the fact that the time may not yet have come when the rash and indiscriminate judgments which contemporaries are wont to pass on his actions can be calmly reviewed in the light of subsequent history and that a large amount of evidence which may be essential to a judicious estimation of his character it will be imperative to omit His biographers accordingly find themselves glossing over many of his conspicuous faults out of due consideration to his colleagues and relatives who may still be living or making light of his virtues to suit the antagonistic opinions of his contemporary opponents Thus we find that until his generation has passed away it is only possible to arrive at a compromise of the truth But this generalisation seems not to be applicable in the case of Bismarck No decent interval has been allowed to elapse after his death before the publication of a large mass of private correspondence and documents having immediate bearing upon his character and his achievements Bismarck in conversation one day with Busch his biographer said When once I am dead you can tell everything you like absolutely everything you know As a statesman and as a diplomatist his character has consequently been made so plain to us that there is very little to wait for before giving our final judgments Almost every word from his lips or his pen found its way to publicity either during his lifetime or soon after his death It is not probable that the present generation or any other that Makers of Modern Strategy from Machiavelli to the Nuclear Age Peter Paret, Gordon A. Craig, Felix Gilbert, 1986-10-30 War cannot be controlled in future without an understanding of its past These essays analyse war its strategic characteristics and its political and social functions over the past five centuries
