David Livingstone Smith

Making A Monster:

Making Monsters: A Speculative and Classical Anthology Djibril al-Ayad, Emma Bridges, 2018-06-04 We have always made monsters in art in myth in religion out of clay or bronze pixels or hybrid flesh from the stuff of human nightmares by cursing women with bestial traits This anthology brings together fiction and accessible academic writing in conversation about monsters and their roles in our lives and ours in theirs

Making Monsters David Livingstone Smith, 2021-10-12 A leading scholar explores what it means to dehumanize others and how and why we do it I wouldn't have accepted that they were human beings You would see an infant who's just learning to smile and it smiles at you but you still kill it So a Hutu man explained to an incredulous researcher when asked to recall how he felt slaughtering Tutsis in Rwanda in 1994 Such statements are shocking yet we recognize them we hear their echoes in accounts of genocides massacres and pogroms throughout history How do some people come to believe that their enemies are monsters and therefore easy to kill In Making Monsters David Livingstone Smith offers a poignant meditation on the philosophical and psychological roots of dehumanization Drawing on harrowing accounts of lynchings Smith establishes what dehumanization is and what it isn't When we dehumanize our enemy we hold two incongruous beliefs at the same time we believe our enemy is at once subhuman and fully human To call someone a monster then is not merely a resort to metaphor dehumanization really does happen in our minds Turning to an abundance of historical examples Smith explores the relationship between dehumanization and racism the psychology of hierarchy what it means to regard others as human beings and why dehumanizing others transforms them into something so terrifying that they must be destroyed Meticulous but highly readable Making Monsters suggests that the process of dehumanization is deeply seated in our psychology It is precisely because we are all human that we are vulnerable to the manipulations of those trading in the politics of demonization and violence
