Making China Modernized:

In Making China Modernized Wenhui Cai, 1996 In Making China Modernized Wenhui Cai, 1993 China's Modernization I Georg Peter Reuß-Markus Krauß, 2015-09-09 The idea of only one way leading to a modern society seems to be hardly tenable. But even if we agree to this our theories and terms describing modernization are gained on our own Western history. So social science has to reconsider its basic terms to describe China's modernization and maybe even the understanding of modernization itself. The first of two volumes on China's modernization collects articles by leading Chinese and Western scientists focusing on the main conflicts and differences this process involves. In a first section Changing China Dealing with Diversity Björn Alperman analyses the terms Class Citizenship and Individualization in China's Modernization. Andrew Kipnis analyses the Chinese Nation Building as Instead of and Before Globalization while John R. Gibbins examines Principles for Cosmopolitan Societies Values for Cosmopolitan Places On Modernization Law Business and Economy in China. The second section deals with Modernizing Chinese Law The Protection of Private Property in China by Sanzhu Zhu. Chinese Organizations as Groups of People Towards a Chinese Business Administration by Peter J. Peverelli and Income Gaps in Economic Development Differences among Regions Occupational Groups and Ethnic Groups by Ma Rong. The last section Thinking Differentiations Chinese Origin and the Western Culture concentrates on the role of religion with articles by Richard Madsen Christianity and Hybrid Modernity in China and Thorsten Botz Bornstein Confucianism Puritanism and the Transcendental China and America. Jeffrey N. Wasserstrom argues that Nathan Sharansky's test for free nations should take regional variations into account in China and the Town Square Test In Metaphor Poetry and Cultural Implicature. Ying Zhang examines if the Western understanding of metaphor can be transferred to Chinese language and culture. The additional rubric On Contemporary Philosophy involves three articles about the question Can Science Change our Notion of Existence by Jody Azzouni, The Epistemological Significance of Practices by Alan Millar and On Cappelen and Hawthorne's Relativism and Monadic Truth by J. Adam Carter. Content and abstracts www.protosociology.de

The Modernization of China Rozman, 1982-08 In the Modernization of China an interdisciplinary team of scholars collaborate closely to provide the first systematic integrated analysis of China in transformation from an agrarian based to an urbanized and industrialized society. Moving from the legacy of the Ming and Ching dynasties to the reforms and revolutions of the 20th century the authors seek reasons for China's inability to achieve rapid steady growth during a 200 year long struggle to modernize. They examine the changing shape of Chinese society the role of the state in local politics military affairs economics the development of the educational system changes in family population and settlement patterns science and technology world views and foreign relations. And they make frequent comparisons between China's experience with growth and that of two other latecomers to modernization Japan and Russia. The result is a book that brings much needed clarity and perspective to our understanding of China and the way a great civilization attempts to meet the challenge of modernity

Challenges and Solutions to China's

Modernization Process Fang Cai,2024-05-18 Focusing on these developing problems and growing troubles this book mainly discusses economic growth issues related to demographic transition as well as livelihood issues derived from them and closely related to policy logic It aims to make theoretical analysis and provide necessary international experience and lessons and put forward targeted policy advice This book proposes a three pronged pattern of competition policy industrial policy and social policy to achieve productivity improvement and innovation momentum gives full play to China's super large market advantages attractiveness and negotiating position and promotes each other through domestic and international dual cycles to achieve a higher level of development China's Automotive Modernization Gregory T. Chin,2010-01-29 As a window for understanding the relationship between globalization and the state's pursuit of national industrial development this book examines how and why the Chinese government succeeded in leveraging China's international competitive advantages to modernize the country's automotive industry from 1978 to 2001 China's Modernization Goals Clark E. Chastain,1981

A New World is Possible Yu Jiang,2023-02-11 This book gives a panoramic review of China's 70 years of modernization reveals the historical process and logic of the formation of the modernization path with Chinese characteristics especially focuses on the key decision making process in the history of China's modernization theoretically compares the Chinese model and the western mainstream model and summarizes the characteristics and experience of China's development model At the same time it reveals the causes of the global crisis from a historical perspective and puts forward the future of China based on historical experience The book tries to answer the following hot debating questions What is the core of Chinese experience Is China model a new model of modernization Is China's model sustainable Is this model compatible with the mainstream model What is the relationship between China's revolution and modernization How will China's development affect the world This book will be found helpful by all scholars students and the public who are interested in China's development path China's Modernization and Transnational Corporations Nian-Tzu Wang,1984
