Making Christian Sense:

Making Christian Sense Paul L. Holmer, 1984-01-01 Recommends methods for finding meaning in daily life through religious faith and an understanding of the teachings of Christianity Making Sense of "God" Norman Solomon, 2023-05-04 All over the world people talk about God and argue endlessly about what God said and what if anything we should do about it Do they know what are they talking about Do they ever seriously consider what it might look like or feel like if God actually spoke to you How could you tell if someone said God spoke to them whether they were deluded bluffing or high on drugs The reflections dialogues and arguments in this book address such questions often with humor sometimes provocatively as when the author suggests the ancient gods have returned to invade the institutions of our great religions or when two spirits William and James viewing the world from afar voice their doubt as to whether the human species will ever attain the pinnacles of cooperation reason beauty and love Ancient texts from the Mayan Popol Vuh through the Bible to the Chinese classics are invoked and the discoveries of modern science from anthropology to zoology are brought into play as the reader is gently led to an appreciation of the role of religious language in modern society Making Sense of Evolution John F. Haught, 2010-01-01 Haught offers a provocative take on how reconciliation between evolution and Christian theology might begin and questions whether the two concepts must be mutually exclusive Making Life Make Sense Jay Kesler, 1986 Examines many questions young people may have about God and Christianity Thinking with Kierkegaard and Wittgenstein Richard Griffith Rollefson, 2014-10-20 Paul L Holmer influenced the development of the so called Yale School and several generations of students by seeing common logical and ethico religious themes in the works of Soren Kierkegaard and Ludwig Wittgenstein Holmer is perhaps the preeminent interpreter of Kierkegaard with his analysis of the logic of Kierkegaard's truth as subjectivity and the morphology of the life of Christian belief In his polemical and constructive work The Grammar of Faith Holmer explored the significance of the later philosophy of Ludwig Wittgenstein for theology and proposed a critical alternative to contemporary academic theology In his C S Lewis The Shape of His Life and Thought Making Christian Sense and various essays now compiled in The Paul L Holmer papers Holmer's reassessment of the traditional concepts of virtues and vices his recognition of the importance of Christian praxis in providing the context for theological and ethical reflection together with his emphasis on the role of emotions and passions in the life of faith portray how the Christian faith forms character and helps one make sense with one's life Is Christianity for You? Patrick Morley, 2013-04-14 A lot of genuine sincere people have honest questions even doubts about God the Bible and Christianity In this book Patrick Morley takes you on a tour of four belief systems or worldviews secular moral religious and Christian then clearly explains why the Christian worldview makes the most sense God Is Not Like That Diana Spencer, 2009-09-01 God is Not Like That challenges all Christians to think seriously about how the misunderstandings of the past are currently affecting Christianity worldwide The work of the Reformation was never finished because the various factions involved split apart from each other without finding any common resolution to the problems facing the medieval church The conclusions reached in God is Not Like That have been formulated after years of deliberation in an effort to stimulate thought and discussion among all denominations of Christianity today Many problems that stem from these unresolved issues have been inherited by all denominations for example the author believes that the Athanasian Creed while right in its original intent has been misunderstood by everyone for many centuries This has been compounded by the fact that for many years there have been growing doubts about the divinity of Christ and the doctrine of the Trinity even among scholars and teachers making it difficult for them to explain and defend the faith to an increasingly skeptical world Meanwhile its vocal critics do not realize that many of the ideas that they are challenging stem from mistaken assumptions from the past not with the faith itself it is urgent that these issues be examined and the distortions resolved Diana Spencer is a retired Anglican priest although the views expressed in this book are her own It was written in the hope that all denominations of Christianity would think about and discuss the issues raised Born in England in 1935 she came to Canada at the age of twenty one is widowed and living in Victoria
