Making Complex Decisions:

Insights: How Expert Principals Make Difficult Decisions Dionne V. McLaughlin, 2015-03-09 Learn to make the best decisions for your school Essential to inspiring and improving schools principals make complex decisions on a daily basis This invaluable resource offers extensive case studies to explore how expert principals manage crises navigate tough choices and support school environments You will find Problem solving strategies and cases focused on data analysis and competing stakeholders Easy to use checklists robust reflection questions and a framework to define your own professional core values Tools to coach and evaluate teachers and bolster struggling students A former elementary and secondary school site administrator the author presents a highly sensible cohesive and research based approach to decision making that will greatly benefit school principals at any career stage I have never seen or heard of an excellent school that did not have an excellent principal In this important new book McLaughlin helps us to understand what it takes to become a genuine expert as a school leader by closely examining how they navigate the challenges involved in leading schools during these turbulent times Pedro A Noguera Peter L Agnew Professor of Education Steinhardt School of Culture Education and Development Executive Director Metropolitan Center for Research on Equity and the Transformation of Schools New York University This book is a rare blend of practice and solid academic work Dionne McLaughlin's writing shows that she talks the talk because she has walked the walk Fenwick W English R Wendell Eaves Senior Distinguished Professor of Educational Leadership School of Education University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill McLaughlin describes a sensible and cohesive approach to decision making and includes case studies of actual situations faced by real principals Insights is a valuable resource for new and aspiring principals as well as experienced principals C Diane Payne Director Principal Fellows Program Center for School Leadership Development Chapel Hill NC Making Difficult Decisions Peter J. A. Shaw, 2010-02-04 You are faced with so many difficult decisions Often your decision making seems random It can be swayed by different situations and emotions You need to be more rigorous in the way you make decisions and yet you have very little time to do so Experience from others who have made tough decisions and a framework to help you do so would be invaluable The courage to make decisions is sometimes a bit elusive It is difficult to find the calmness to be able to make and live with those decisions There is so much that can be learned from the experience of others After working through this book you will have the courage of your convictions and the ability to make difficult decisions count The book sets out a framework for making difficult decisions that has been tried and tested It has been used successfully in one to one coaching with senior leaders in both the public private and voluntary sectors The framework is built on the following strands Clarity Conviction Courage and Communication
