Making Disciples Sondra Higgins Matthaehi, 2000 How is it that we come to know ourselves as Christians What were the elements of John Wesley's work that contributed to spiritual formation for a Christian life and how did these elements interrelate Focusing on matters of formation and transformation in faith Sondra Matthaehi answers such questions in light of early Methodist practices of formation Through research and dialogue with Wesleyan scholarship and constructive proposals related to the life of the church this insightful study encourages faithful and imaginative approaches to spiritual formation in churches today The focus of this book is on matters of formation and transformation in faith The book answers the question How do we come to know ourselves as Christian and analyzes this question in light of early Methodist practices of formation and an ecology of education within the Methodist movement The reader will come to understand John Wesley's idea of character formation and moral transformation The reader will understand how Christian and vocation are shaped through spiritual formation and will understand the role of structures and relationships family school church etc in spiritual formation

Leader's Guide for Making Disciples: Faith Formation in the Wesleyan Tradition, Sondra Higgins Mathei [sic] Sara J. Fleming, 2001 Formation in Faith Sondra Higgins Matthaehi, 2008-01-01 The ministry of congregations is to make disciples of Jesus Christ Behind that simple and seemingly self evident statement lies a problematic reality however While congregations know that disciple making is at the heart of their identity they often have trouble understanding how to go about it Apart from such traditional Christian education ministries as Sunday school too little formal thinking or planning goes into the task of forming Christians in the faith In this book Sondra Matthaehi casts a vision in which congregations open up their life of faith to others as an invitation to connect the universal longing for authentic relationships and deeper meaning with the church's practice of faithful discipleship As folks enter the church's communion of grace Matthaehi challenges church leaders to utilize the gifts of every member and lays out a plan to help congregations grow in faith and communion with God and creation including the context and goal of such ministry deciding what to teach and who shall teach and attendant relationships structures and practices

Making Disciples in a World Parish Paul W.

Chilcote,2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction

Proleptic Pedagogy

Sondra H. Matthaei,Nancy R. Howell,2014-06-17 Could we have imagined how much theological education would change in the new millennium Shifting needs of students classrooms and churches have demanded constant revisions of the curriculum course design classroom technology and pedagogical strategies Saint Paul School of Theology felt the tide of change within our own walls and designed a project called Proleptic Pedagogy to address three distinct pedagogical challenges for the future of theological education First instead of fitting new technologies into old pedagogies how are teaching and learning transformed by shifting needs of students who are digital natives digital immigrants or distance learners Second instead of reactive strategies what pedagogy proactively eliminates accommodations because courses are designed with flexibility and openness to diverse learning styles disabilities and needs Third instead of engaging student diversity with the tools of the 1960s what new teaching and learning strategies anticipate future student racial and ethnic demographics and interracial educational experiences This volume of essays narrates our classroom stories teases out pedagogical issues examines pedagogical literature reflects on theology of pedagogy and constructs pedagogical proposals with an open invitation for other theological educators to join our conversation about the future of theological education

Loving God, Loving Neighbor Peggy Kendall; Claire Smith; Tim Ke,2008-04-01 In almost every congregation there is a searching youth who is somehow different from the rest one who thinks more deeply asks more questions and wants to make a difference in the world This young person may be seen as a loner an upstart or someone who does not fit Youth workers may not know what to do with these inquisitive youth and a youth program that meets the congregation s expectations probably won t connect with the needs and interests of searching youth Eventually searching youth turn into searching adults who continue to stir things up and enrich the life of our congregations with their questions insights witness and service These young people have the capacity and ability to provide significant leadership in our congregations now and in the future Because of their unique gifts we are offering this book as a resource for pastors teachers and youth leaders who work with them In this book faculty members students and recent graduates of Saint Paul School of Theology look through the eyes of their academic disciplines and ministry experience to explore the foundations for ministry with searching youth and to offer designs for your ministry

The Quest for Love Divine PB Paul W Chilcote, 2024-01-01 John Wesley's impact on Methodist theology and practice is well established but there are many other early figures who shaped Methodism just as thoroughly Quest for Love Divine explores the contributions of Charles Wesley by exploring the impact of his lyrics on Methodist worship and the importance of lyrical theology in the founding of Methodism Chilcote also examines the contributions of early Methodist women such as Dorothy Fisher Mary Taft and Sarah Crosby exploring how the Wesley brothers and their community sought to inhabit faith working by love leading to holiness of heart and life In his collection of essays Chilcote explores the salient themes of Wesleyan theology and practice and reflects on its legacy in the Wesley's time and in ours By focussing on the nature of their discipleship and the centrality of love divine Chilcote brings Wesleyan theology into sharp and practical focus Evangelical Hospitality Tory K. Baucum, 2008 Christian faith is always a leap When the leap takes particularly long in a society the Church has characteristically shortened that leap through a process approach to winning seekers known as catechetical evangelism Author Tory Baucum explores catechumenal evangelism in the early Church and its recovery in the early modern period in Methodism and late modernity or postmodernity in the Alpha course Baucum seeks to describe the salient features of catechetical evangelism and why it is effective at creating an environment that shortens the leap from unbelief to belief Evangelical Hospitality describes a church that has lost touch with its deep memory of evangelization the recovery of that memory in catechetical ministry and the kinds of practices this recovery spawns in the Church After describing the social construction of faith communities the bulk of the book examines four core practices which are entailed in creating cultures of faith places where believing in Christ becomes plausible and possible The book concludes with some perennial principles from Christian communities who learn to construct faith cultures Early Methodist Spirituality Paul Wesley Chilcote, 2007 An anthology of writings of late 18th and early 19th century Methodist women Writings of early Methodist women have compelling stories to tell This volume puts us in touch with a lost heritage of vital spirituality that can transform lives and the church even today These selections from the writings of early Methodist women vividly illustrate the richness of women's contributions to the life of the church and the legacy of Wesleyan spirituality The religious accounts diaries and journals prayers hymns and sacred poems and narrative practical divinity brought together here for the first time provide a new vantage point from which to view the wonderful spiritual awakening of Wesley's day They reveal a way of devotion a way of living out the Christian faith that conjoins personal piety and social action conversion and growth in grace     Christian Education Myrtle Felkner,2001 Felkner covers such key areas as enlisting and training teachers selecting curriculum finding and using places and spaces barriers and opportunities and locating and inviting students An excellent resource list for future reference is included as well as questions for discussion     Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2001-06     The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2002     Religious and Theological Abstracts ,2004     American Book Publishing Record R.R. Bowker Company,1978     Religion Index One ,2007     Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004     Wesleyan-Methodist Magazine ,1888     Response ,1994     Unmasking Methodist Theology Clive Marsh,2004 Annotation divBritish Methodism is reshaping itself At a time of uncertainty about the future owing to declining numbers and an ever closer relationship with the Church of England a collection of the liveliest theological minds in contemporary Methodism have written a book which shows how recent theology can be a resource for the future Methodism has always had an active concern with both evangelism and social welfare and by means of its central organization it is able to coordinate efforts in these areas The book asks challenging questions about how this may develop in the complex post modern secular world
