Frederick John Gladman, 1885 Teaching Comprehension with Questioning Strategies that Motivate Middle School Readers Larry Lewin, 2009. Questioning strategies used during and after reading help middle school readers comprehend while reading, improving recall and understanding and building a strong sense of purpose for reading. Phrasing questions to gather information used as well as more advanced techniques such as QRA, question answer relationships and QtA, questioning the author.

Communication Disorders in Infants and Toddlers Frances P. Billeaud, 2003. Communication Disorders in Infants and Toddlers is a concise guide to assessment and intervention for infants and toddlers in the birth to 36 month age group with special needs. In the face of demands placed on the health care system by fluctuating public policy and managed care, this invaluable resource is designed to help professionals optimize treatment and achieve the best possible outcomes for very young patients. It emphasizes a multidisciplinary team approach to management, discussing the processes of teaming, referral, collaboration and communicating efficiently and effectively with families and peers in related fields. Information on assessment methods, implications of specific diagnosis and encouraging development through parent professional teaming are presented with recent research findings, making this text both a valuable evidence based reference and clinical tool.
