Making Jazz French:

Making Jazz French Jeffrey H. Jackson, 2003-08-05 A history of jazz in interwar France concentrating on the ways this originally American music was integrated into French culture Making Jazz French, 2009 DIVA history of jazz in interwar France concentrating on the ways this originally American music was integrated into French culture div Making Jazz French Jeffrey H. Jackson, 1999 French Music and Jazz in Conversation Deborah Mawer, 2014-12-04 French concert music and jazz often enjoyed a special creative exchange across the period 1900-65 French modernist composers were particularly receptive to early African American jazz during the interwar years and American jazz musicians especially those concerned with modal jazz in the 1950s and early 1960s exhibited a distinct affinity with French musical impressionism However despite a general if contested interest in the cultural interplay of classical music and jazz few writers have probed the specific French music jazz relationship in depth In this book Deborah Mawer sets such musical interplay within its historical cultural and critical analytical contexts offering a detailed yet accessible account of both French and American perspectives Blending intertextuality with more precise borrowing techniques Mawer presents case studies on the musical interactions of a wide range of composers and performers including Debussy Satie Milhaud Ravel Jack Hylton George Russell Bill Evans and Dave Brubeck After Django Tom Perchard, 2015-01-14 How did French musicians and critics interpret jazz that quintessentially American music in the mid twentieth century How far did players reshape what they learned from records and visitors into more local jazz forms and how did the music figure in those angry debates that so often suffused French cultural and political life After Django begins with the famous interwar triumphs of Josephine Baker and Django Reinhardt but for the first time the focus here falls on the French jazz practices of the postwar era The work of important but neglected French musicians such as Andr  Hodeir and Barney Wilen is examined in depth as are native responses to Americans such as Miles Davis and Thelonious Monk The book provides an original intertwining of musical and historical narrative supported by extensive archival work in clear and compelling prose Perchard describes the problematic efforts towards aesthetic assimilation and transformation made by those concerned with jazz in fact and in idea listening to the music as it sounded in discourses around local identity art 1968 radicalism social democracy and post colonial politics

Paris Blues Andy Fry, 2024-05-31 The Jazz Age The phrase conjures images of Louis Armstrong holding court at the Sunset Cafe in Chicago Duke Ellington dazzling crowds at the Cotton Club in Harlem and star singers like Bessie Smith and Ma Rainey But the Jazz Age was every bit as much of a Paris phenomenon as it was a Chicago and New York scene In Paris Blues Andy Fry provides an alternative history of African American music and musicians in France one that looks beyond familiar personalities and well rehearsed stories He pinpoints key issues of race and nation in France's complicated jazz history from the 1920s through the 1950s While he deals with many of the traditional icons such as Josephine Baker Django Reinhardt and Sidney Bechet among others what he asks is how they came to be so iconic and what their stories hide as well as what they preserve Fry focuses throughout on early jazz and swing but includes its re creation reinvention in the 1950s Along the way he pays tribute to forgotten traditions such as black musical theater white show bands and French wartime swing Paris Blues provides a nuanced account of the French reception of African Americans and their music and contributes greatly to a growing literature on jazz race and nation in France

Americanism, Media and the Politics of Culture in 1930s France David A. Pettersen, 2016-05-20 First book to focus on Americanism and its consideration of French film and literature The book is organized around individual figures texts and films making it easy to adopt for individual units in courses The book is written in clear accessible and jargon free language The book brings a new and innovative transatlantic perspective to 1930s French culture The books offers new perspectives on important figures that we thought we knew well The book mixes cultural history with the analysis of individual films and novels in a way that is engaging to read

At Home in Our Sounds Rachel Anne Gillett, 2021 At Home in Our Sounds examines the ways Black artists reacted to the heightened visibility of racial difference in interwar Paris illustrating the effect jazz music had on the enormous social challenges Europe faced in the aftermath of World War I

Programming National Identity Joelle Neulander, 2009 Radio provided a new and powerful medium in 1930s France Devoted audiences responded avidly to their stations programming and relied on radio as a source of daily entertainment news and other information Within the comfortable secure space of the home audio culture reigned supreme In Programming National Identity Joelle Neulander examines the rise of radio as a principal form of mass culture in interwar France exploring the intricate relationship between radio gender and consumer culture She shows that while entertaining in nature and narrative in structure French radio programm
