Rethinking Islam and Space in Europe C.J.J. Moses, Tobias Müller, Adela Taleb, 2022-09-05 The role of Islam in public spaces is one of the most prevalent political questions in Europe Contestations around the construction of mosques the ban of Islamic veils and populist rhetoric about problematic neighbourhoods indicate Europe s struggles with the place of its second largest religion This book advocates for an analytical turn in the study of Islam in Europe using space as a central conceptual lens While spatial approaches are gaining traction in the study of religion migration ethnicity race and politics the chapters in this book argue that the critical potential of a spatialised analysis in the field of Islam in Europe remains largely unexplored This volume presents a collection of nine empirical studies that offer insights into how scholars might exploit the category of space when analysing both current political issues and broader conceptual questions in the social sciences And more specifically how does a spatial perspective on Islam contribute to a deeper understanding of the formations of the state ethnicity race secularism gender and colonial structures Rethinking Islam and Space in Europe is a significant new contribution to racial and ethnic studies in Europe and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Politics Sociology Social and Political Geography Anthropology and Religious Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a 2021 special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Muslim Societies in the Age of Mass Consumption Johanna Pink,2009 The papers in this anthology present innovative approaches to a wide range of issues that have so far barely received scholarly attention The topics range from the changing spaces of consumption to Islamic branding from the marketing of religious music to the consumption patterns of Muslim minority groups The Muslim World Book Review ,1997 Class, Culture and Space Alexander Horstmann,2002 In the present social and cultural transformation of South Thailand s cultural politics ideologies involving the family gender and home provide the cultural codes in social dramas of the state the media and social and religious movements This study looks at micropolitics and the nesting of the political action of everyday life in larger ultimately global structures of power Exploring the making of class culture and space the production and consumption of culture is understood as work which involves the constant negotiation of boundaries American Sanctuary Louis P.
