Self Help Readers Choice:

The Reading Lives of Teens Chin Ee Loh, 2024-11-04 In these changing times of global flows of media and technologies and reports of declining reading enjoyment researchers policymakers and educators need to engage anew with essential issues of what counts as reading what kinds of reading matter and how to support teen reading engagement in school and out of school settings Bringing together contributions from well known and emerging adolescent literacy researchers from different disciplinary perspectives this edited collection consolidates contemporary research on teens volitional print and digital reading whether in school or out of school contexts The first part of the book offers overviews of what teens are reading followed by chapters on community support on reading and new ways of researching teen reading With chapters from North America Europe Australia Asia and the Middle East the collection will offer multifaceted and complex insights into what how and why teens read in different contexts Reflection questions at the end of each chapter encourage readers to consider how the research can be applied in their own research policy and practice contexts This book will be of interest to researchers policymakers and educators who are invested in supporting adolescent engaged reading with evidence based policies and strategies

Shame in Contemporary You-Narration Denise Wong, 2025-10-31 In fiction you narratives written in the last decade across the world parody the form of second person address found in advertising self help and how to books while anticipating shame and culpability To establish the significance of affect this book returns to second person narrative theory s neglected origins in the theory of autobiography This book examines the use of you across media novels and memoirs by Paul Auster Carmen Maria Machado Alejandro Zambra Vendela Vida Christine Angot Clarice Lispector Charles Yu and Caleb Azumah Nelson poems by Claudia Rankine and Phoebe Waller Bridge s play and television series Fleabag 2016 19 These texts are brought into dialogue with narratology philosophy literary criticism and critical race theory to illustrate how the second person pronoun s capacity to address the real world reader inevitably renders such narratives a site for political and ethical contestation
