Make It Real

Jill J. Morin

Make It Real:

Make It Real Frank Mercadante, 2004 Every Catholic teen will be evangelized in the coming year That is a fact The question is this Who will evangelize our teens and to what will they be converted Ironically most evangelization is being done not by the Church but by contemporary American culture A variety of voices are vying for the attention and allegiance of our youth Many of those voices often electronically piped into our unsuspecting households proclaim relevantly creatively and persuasively a message contrary to our Catholic faith Yet the Church possesses a message that addresses the most significant hunger of every teen s heart We have exactly what young people are searching for We struggle however in constructing an environment that teens find attractive and we often fail to proclaim the Gospel in a creative and culturally relevant manner Make It Real A Practical Resource for Teen Friendly Evangelization is all about building evangelistic ministry that not only is worth teens time but also addresses the issues that are real in their lives This book provides fresh clear and test driven principles for building an effective and teen friendly ministry for evangelistic outreach The fully designed sessions help the busy youth worker implement dynamic and spiritually powerful evangelistic gatherings

Make It Real Nomvuzo Ndeleman, 2014-01-14 Make It Real by Vuzo Adeleke What could possibly go wrong in a house presided over by a doting father and a loving mother In Make It Real by Vuzo Adeleke we can see the kind of stigma people pay for after going through childhood scarred for life by physical mental and sexual torture from the people relied upon to look after them Despite being blessed by an almost perfect set of parents the author describes the silent horror of living in a house with a vicious nanny and a perverted Christian minister No wonder then that it took a momentous development in her life before she could regain the trust and the mind to gain the life befitting her own outlook Make It Real shows us what could go wrong in a typical upwardly mobile aspiring family and the latent effects of sinister people upon what could be our own children About the Author Vuzo Adeleke was born and raised in Durban South Africa She studied education and graduated with Primary Teacher s degree and pursued further diploma in Education Specializing in School Library and Media Science She is currently employed as a primary school teacher head of department in the foundation phase She lives in her hometown of Durban
