Making a Difference Irwin Deutscher, 2018-01-16 Emphasis on measurement techniques can interfere with understanding how well particular social programs in their field work In Making a Difference The Practice of Sociology Irwin Deutscher links traditional sociological concerns with applied sociology in an effort to overcome this problem He contributes to the debate over the extent to which health educational and social programs initiated by the Roosevelt Kennedy and Johnson administrations have been successful in intimate human terms Deutscher believes that the introduction of a sociological perspective can provide a positive element to interdisciplinary pursuits This belief as well as his fresh perspectives on both the strengths and limitations inherent in applied sociology offer the field a revitalising lift As such this highly informative thought provoking volume will be of interest to sociologists and policy makers in health education crime welfare and housing

Making a Difference Irwin Deutscher, 1999 Emphasis on measurement techniques can interfere with understanding how well particular social programs in their field work In Making a Difference The Practice of Sociology Irwin Deutscher links traditional sociological concerns with applied sociology in an effort to overcome this problem He contributes to the debate over the extent to which health educational and social programs initiated by the Roosevelt Kennedy and Johnson administrations have been successful in intimate human terms The work is divided into five parts Toward a Useful Sociology is a collection of essays concerning the causes of social problems and the uses of evaluation research On Doing Applied Research explores research tools and stereotypes The Raised Eyebrow points out obstructions to useful program evaluation Vignettes deals with specific areas of social programs public housing aging family disaster relief small town petty crime the integration of public facilities delinquency nursing and the education of tribal people Deutscher believes that the introduction of a sociological perspective can provide a positive element to interdisciplinary pursuits This belief as well as his fresh perspectives on both the strengths and limitations inherent in applied sociology offer the field a revitalizing lift As such this highly informative thought provoking volume will be of interest to sociologists and policymakers in health education crime welfare housing

Making a Difference College and Graduate Guide Miriam Weinstein, 2000 Finally Prestigious scholarships and fellowships for doing good This is the make a difference generation and all over America high school and college students are rolling up their sleeves and devoting their time and energy to causes they believe in And like most students they could use some extra money when heading to college so why not take advantage of the many scholarships available for doing community service Making a Difference Scholarships is a unique guide written especially for caring students The guide lists distinguished scholarships awarded for social service social entrepreneur funds for young people who start their own non profits college based service scholarships and fellowships for studies such as labor peace and the environment While most scholarship guides are filled with obscure small scholarships that very few students are eligible for anyone doing community service anywhere in the U S can try for most making a difference scholarships Many of these scholarships are exceptionally large in the 5 000 to 10 000 range And winners of these awards substantially increase their chances of being admitted to the college of their choice Today s students really deserve honors for their acts of community building and environmental stewardship A wonderful gift for students who care and a great companion guide to Making a Difference College and Graduate Guide Miriam Weinstein has been active in environmental and social causes since her teens She has been publishing the Making a Difference College Guide since 1992 Weinstein is a graduate of the New College of California and lives in San Anselmo California

Praxeological Political Analysis Michael Jonas, Beate Littig, 2016-11-03 With the interest in practice theory and praxeology on the rise praxeology can be considered an emerging new methodological as well as theoretical paradigm which successfully overcomes epistemological dichotomies of conventional approaches The articles in this volume serve as starting points for rendering contemporary practice theory approaches useful for the analysis of political events and processes without reducing the political aspect a priori to the formal policy sphere In this context Praxeological Political Analysis demonstrates that praxeological research is now increasingly addressing issues which are considered virulent in for instance the consumer sustainability or political spheres Following on from this key focus on political analysis this title also seeks to expand the current status of primarily political science adaptations of practice theory approaches to the analysis of predominantly narrowly defined political practices Written with an explicit focus on diverse political aspects and dimensions in the performative enactment of social practices this title will appeal to post graduate students and scholars interested in sociology of politics social and public policy development in social theory and political research methods

Early Years Pedagogy in Practice Ruksana Beigi, 2020-07-20 This accessible text encourages readers to understand and confidently engage with distinctive early years pedagogy It shows how pedagogy not only underpins the early years curriculum but is also inherent in the role of the adult and the experiences that are offered to young children The book explains what the differing early years pedagogies are why they are encouraged and the knowledge skills and practice that are required to work with them Emphasising that what works in one situation may not in another and a wider pedagogical knowledge is essential to ensure quality outcomes for children it considers key topics such as the role of the pedagogue and developing your own style promoting a lifelong love of learning in children under your care sensitivity and inclusion for all children s cultures and communities promoting the rights of every child under your care Incorporating reflection points and research tasks to support independent learning this is essential reading for students on Early Childhood Studies courses and Early Years Foundation Degrees as well as early years practitioners
