reconciliation confrontational communication and the dangers of demonizing others are all handled with depth and originality supported by Scripture contemporary conflict theory and a rich tapestry of examples drawn from Richard's extensive professional experience in both secular and faith based contexts Charlene A Berquist Ph D Emeritus Professor and Former Director Center for Dispute Resolution Missouri State University Co Founder Communication and Conflict Management Associates CCMA

The Fugitive Identity of Mediation Debbie De Girolamo, 2013-07-18 Despite much having been written about what mediation is direct observations of commercial mediations are limited This book grants an opportunity to observe mediation in action and also provides external commentary about the actions observed The book approaches Mediation ethnographically as a social process that is informed by structures rules and norms that colour the environment within which it operates Through the ethnographic method a process leading to negotiated order is examined baring its elements identifying its influences and studying the movement to order The result is the reconceptualization of mediation The mediator is invited into the negotiation as third party intervener He creates the process of mediation defining the process by his actions which ultimately merges mediator with process This book provides a window to the lived experience of participants to mediation it explores their understandings of and interactions within a process they have experienced together and demonstrates how mediation is a process inextricably linked to negotiation The Fugitive Identity of Mediation will be of interest to scholars mediators parties who participate in the process and to those active in public policy discourse
