Making Of The Modern Child:

The Making of the Modern Child Andrew O'Malley,2004-06-01 This book explores how the concept of childhood in the late 18th century was constructed through the ideological work performed by children's literature as well as pedagogical writing and medical literature of the era Andrew O'Malley ties the evolution of the idea of the child to the growth of the middle class which used the figure of the child as a symbol in its various calls for social reform Making Modern Girls Abosede A. George,2014-11-15 In Making Modern Girls Abosede A. George examines the influence of African social reformers and the developmentalist colonial state on the practice and ideology of girlhood as well as its intersection with child labor in Lagos Nigeria It draws from gender studies, generational studies, labor history, and urban history to shed new light on the complex workings of African cities from the turn of the twentieth century through the nationalist era of the 1950s The two major schemes at the center of this study were the modernization project of elite Lagosian women and the salvationist project of British social workers By approaching children and youth specifically girl hawkers as social actors and examining the ways in which local and colonial reformers worked upon young people the book offers a critical new perspective on the uses of African children for the production and legitimization of national and international social development initiatives

Making Modern Girls demonstrates how oral sources can be used to uncover the social history of informal or undocumented urban workers and to track transformations in practices of childhood over the course of decades George revises conventional accounts of the history of development work in Africa by drawing close attention to the social welfare initiatives of late colonialism and by highlighting the roles that African women reformers played in promoting sociocultural changes within their own societies A Companion to Modern Art Pam Meecham,2018-02-13 A Companion to Modern Art presents a series of original essays by international and interdisciplinary authors who offer a comprehensive overview of the origins and evolution of artistic works, movements, approaches, influences, and legacies of Modern Art. It presents a contemporary debate and dialogue rather than a seamless consensus on Modern Art. It aims for reader accessibility by highlighting a plurality of approaches and voices in the field. It presents Modern Art's foundational philosophic ideas and practices as well as the complexities of key artists such as Cezanne and Picasso and those who straddled the modern and contemporary. It looks at the historical reception of Modern Art in addition to the latest insights of art historians, curators, and critics to artists, educators, and more

Modern Schooling and Trajectories of Exclusion Divya Kannan, R. Maithreyi,2023-10-10 A timely enquiry into the disjuncture between schooling and society this book aims to examine the specific spatialities and temporalities of modern schooling through which non normative childhoods are constructed as the provincial other. A large body of critical scholarship has engaged with the ways in which modern schooling draws upon certain situated normative ideals of child development and is uneasy in its attempts to accommodate childhoods that are situated outside of this normative framework. The COVID 19 pandemic in fact was a further reminder of how schooling in its current form is limited in its abilities to address childhoods that spatio temporally disrupt the assumptions of the normal and stable. Together the authors of this edited volume examine the ways in which modern schooling excludes despite set policies for inclusion and how provincialized children respond to this. Cutting across a range of disciplines from history and anthropology to sociology and childhood studies statistics and demography and a range of research methodologies from archival to ethnographic the chapters draw upon these various disciplines in unpacking the structures of modern schooling. Modern Schooling and Trajectories of Exclusion will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of education sociology research methods childhood studies and social sciences. The chapters included in this book were originally published as a special issue of Children's Geographies. The Modern Review Ramananda Chatterjee, 1922. Includes section Reviews and notices of books

Making Modern Mothers Heather Paxson, 2004-02-12 In Greece women speak of mothering as within the nature of a woman. But this durable association of motherhood with femininity exists in tension with the highest incidence of abortion and one of the lowest fertility rates in Europe. In this setting how do women think of themselves as proper individuals mothers and Greek citizens. In this anthropological study of reproductive politics and ethics in Athens Greece Heather Paxson tracks the effects of increasing consumerism and imported biomedical family planning methods showing how women's nature is being transformed to meet crosscutting claims of the contemporary world. Locating profound ambivalence in people's ethical evaluations of gender and fertility control Paxson offers a far reaching analysis of conflicting assumptions about what it takes to be a good mother and a good woman in modern Greece where assertions of cultural tradition unfold against a backdrop of European Union integration economic struggle and national demographic anxiety over a falling birth rate
