Reframing Transformational Leadership Issa M. Saleh,Myint Swe Khine,2014-05-05 One of the more common causes of school system failure is the absence of effective leadership Ideally school leaders are supposed to be the change agents and facilitators whose primary mission is to improve school culture and bring about the effective transformation that leads to a model Professional Learning Community PLC School leaders must focus on developing human capital by working collaboratively with teachers students and all who are involved within the system Effective school leadership has been examined from a variety of perspectives with the focus ranging from the principles of servant leadership to moral imperatives and distributed perspectives The debate on what constitutes effective school leadership continues to be wide ranging and complex Today s research scholarship will be the groundwork for how tomorrow s schools develop a new breed of leadership Upcoming leaders will face new unforeseen challenges so they must re evaluate strategies and re work standard processes in order to promote sustainable development within their respective school systems Tomorrow s leaders will be expected to lead a diverse collective of students and teachers to foster an enduring and empowering culture among students teachers and other stakeholders committed to build a successful learning community      Georgia Education Journal ,1928
