Never Ashamed:

Never Ashamed Avi Snyder, 2022-05-17 Most books on evangelism deal primarily with different approaches to sharing the good news From street ministry to personal witnessing books abound on how to present the gospel in a variety of ways and situations But Never Ashamed isn't a book about how Rather it's a book about why Author Avi Snyder explains Why we mustn't be ashamed of sharing the good news in an open and direct fashion Why believers find it difficult to share the good news of salvation despite the variety of fruit that always abounds Why non-believers often choose to walk away from the claims of the Messiah even when they know or at least suspect in their hearts that His claims are true Why the early church felt compelled to proclaim His message regardless of the risks and costs More than this however Never Ashamed is a book of stories The man who told Avi he wouldn't stop him from jumping out a window The Marxist lady trying to figure him out who eventually concluded he was a provocateur The woman who prayed for God to give her compassion like Him and wept when she received it The Soviet guard who helped Avi's team pass out literature These and many more encounters that Avi shares will make you laugh cry and be filled with joy at the winsome ways in which he brings people to Jesus Daily Inspiration for
