diagnostic categories neurosis perversion psychosis and their subcategories their theoretical foundations and clinical applications ample case material is provided here Parts VI and VII of this collection take us well beyond Seminars I and II relating Lacan's early work to his later views of the 1960s and 1970s Slavoj Žižek explores the complex philosophical relations between Hegel and Lacan regarding the subject and the cause And Lacan's article On Freud's Trieb and the Psychoanalyst's Desire that appears here for the first time in English and is brilliantly unpacked by Jacques Alain Miller in his Commentary on Lacan's Text takes a giant step forward to 1965 where we see a crucial reversal in Lacan's perspective desire is suddenly devalued the defensive inhibiting nature of desire coming to the fore What then becomes essential is the drive as an activity related to the lost object that produces jouissance
