Now in its seventh edition, this directory to worldwide courses for middle and senior management has been extensively revised and is linked to a dedicated website. The directory is backed up by a series of articles from leading business schools, management academics and executives from leading companies. These articles focus on different aspects and approaches to executive education.

Global Trends in Computer Technology and Their Impact on Export Control National Research Council (U.S.). Committee to Study International Developments in Computer Science and Technology, Seymour E. Goodman, 1988. This report consists of individual assessments focusing on the supply of computer technology and how it is evolving in the United States and Coordinating Committee for Multilateral Export Control CoCom countries. It also provides an overview of the Soviet computing industry, the status of major computing technologies there and an assessment of the impact of Mikhail Gorbachev's reforms on the future of Soviet computing and the trends in the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance (CMEA) countries. The report examines how transfer of computer technologies can be controlled for national security purposes without retarding innovation and commercial development in the field and concludes with recommendations for the Department of State and other parties to administer a more flexible control regime.

Alpha Teach Yourself Management Skills in 24 Hours Patricia Buhler, 2001. One of the biggest challenges a person faces in his/her career is becoming a manager. Not only must a manager lead, they must motivate, organize and innovate. It can include reading financial statements, organizing teams, resolving disputes and understanding the overall organizational culture of a company. Macmillan Teach Yourself Management Skills in 24 Hours offers new managers a well-organized, structured approach to self-training. Covering everything from negotiation and project management to interviewing techniques and performance appraisals, this title offers 24 straightforward chapters, each of which can be read and studied in about an hour.
