William Frederick Alexander, 1906 Partners In Passion Mark Michaels, 2014-02-11 Most of us long for intimate relationships and though texting and emailing may keep us superficially connected it ultimately cannot create the kind of intimacy necessary to sustain a deep fulfilling and lasting partnership With the divorce rate reaching a staggering 50 percent in 2013 and the breakup rate among unmarried long term couples even higher it appears that the more we tweet the more disconnected we become So many of us believe that new is better hotter and more intense but love at first sight isn't really love it's chemistry Developing the connections and intimacy that everyone craves takes time and skill In Partners in Passion Michaels and Johnson provide readers with a fun step by step guide to discovering true loving and romantically sexual relationships that will last for decades Comprehensive and inclusive Partners in Passion is original and provocative drawing on a variety of sources cutting edge science psychology the authors background in tantra and personal experiences as teachers and as a couple Partners in Passion invites couples to design their relationships and to choose consciously and is replete with how to suggestions and exercises including interviews with couples from diverse backgrounds relationship styles and orientations who are enjoying erotically vibrant partnerships The Outlook Lyman Abbott, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Ernest Hamlin Abbott, Francis Rufus Bellamy, 1898 Expressions of Love, Passion, and Intimacy Destinee

Dreams of Love and Fateful Encounters Ethel S. Person, 2007-04-02 This groundbreaking study has been widely hailed for its focus on a human emotion generally considered impervious to rational analysis romantic passionate love Ethel Person views romantic love as a powerful agent of change arguing that it is as central to human culture as it is to human existence This new edition of Dreams of Love and Fateful Encounters emphasizes the relevance of passion not only to lovers but also to mental health professionals whose patients often enter treatment because of love related issues from the inability to love or make a commitment to the perils of extramarital love to love sickness or loss of love She forthrightly addresses not only the power of love to unlock the soul but also its inherent paradoxes and conflicts Employing a philosophical perspective in order to understand the existential dilemmas posed by love and a cultural perspective in order to understand its cultural variability Dr Person breaks with contemporary intellectual and philosophical dismissive assumptions about romantic love She acknowledges love's vital importance and power proposing that passion serves an important function not only for the individual but also for the culture while charging psychoanalysis with a reductionist emphasis on sexuality and psychopathology that has narrowed the focus of inquiry into love Among the issues she discusses are romantic love's sources in our early lives its relationship to imagination and creativity and its capacity to enable the lover to transcend the self how romantic love often demands a reordering of values and promotes personal growth by exposing the self to new risks and possibilities the transformational potential of transference love in the therapy process flaws in the common misperception that women are more influenced by romantic love than men considerations of homosexual love love across generations and love triangles focusing on the individual growth that can result from such relationships Citing accounts of love drawn from literature film and real life Person focuses on the lover's internal soliloquy and external dialogue with the beloved that can develop over an individual's life An uplifting resource for people experiencing failing or unorthodox romances Dreams of Love and Fateful Encounters boldly takes on issues pertinent to lovers to professionals who encounter patients for whom key conflicts revolve around romantic love and to anyone who has struggled to understand the importance of romantic love in his or her own life
