Love In A Fearful Land A Guatemalan Story:

Love in a Fearful Land Henri J. M. Nouwen, 2006 This is Henri Nouwen's personal account of a pilgrimage to Santiago Atitlan a Mayan town in the highlands of Guatemala. It was there that an American priest Father Stanley Rother was murdered by a death squad in the parish where he served. In traveling to Santiago Nouwen hoped to learn more about this modern martyr about the faith that drew him there and the love that held him in place even when his life was threatened.

Love, Henri Henri J. M. Nouwen, 2016-10-04 Seven million copies of his books in print. This collection of over 100 unpublished letters from the bestselling author of such spiritual classics as The Return of the Prodigal Son and The Wounded Healer offers deep spiritual insight into human experience intimacy brokenness and mercy. Over the course of his life Henri Nouwen wrote thousands of letters to friends acquaintances parishioners students and readers of his work all around the world. He corresponded in English Dutch German French and Spanish and took great care to store and archive the letters decade after decade. He believed that a thoughtful letter written in love could truly change someone's life. Many people looked to Nouwen as a long distance spiritual advisor. Love Henri consists of over a hundred letters that stretch from the earliest years of Henri's career up through his last 10 years at L'Arche Daybreak. Rich in spiritual insights the letters highlight a number of themes that emerged in both Henri's work over the years including vocation solitude prayer suffering and perseverance in difficult times. These deeply spiritual letters sometimes poignant sometimes funny ultimately demonstrate the rich value of communicating with God through others.

A Human Catechism Joel David Aguilar Ramirez, 2024-01-26 A Human Catechism is a theopoetic journey. It is the integration of personal experience theological reflection and contextual analysis. This book proposes a radical way of discipleship in which we are invited to run the risk of positively imitating one another through the imitation of Christ. If violence happens through the imitation of one another maybe good things do too. As the reader embarks on a contextually self reflective journey this book invites us to take the chance of believing in a God in whom there is no violence. A Human Catechism will be a journey from what seemed impossible to what became second nature all the way to becoming responsible for modeling a way of being otherwise to those around us.

The Spiritual Legacy of Henri Nouwen Deirdre LaNoue, 2000-10-01 In 1969 the year following the death of Thomas Merton Henri Nouwen published his first book Who reading Intimacy Essays in Pastoral Psychology at the time could have guessed that its 37 year old Dutch priest author would become one of the most popular spiritual writers of the 20th century. Unlike Merton whose strictly spiritual writings appealed almost exclusively to Roman Catholics Nouwen had an enormous following among Protestants as well as Catholics. What was it about this man and his work that so resonated with the American psyche over the past thirty years? In The Spiritual Legacy of Henri Nouwen Deirdre LaNoue analyzes Nouwen's voluminous writings in the context of his life and times providing a key to his more than forty individual books as well as a cogent summary of his contribution to the spiritual lives of millions of people. The book includes a complete bibliography of Nouwen's writings as well as a Scripture
