and rest in God's love Jesus is the point of reading the Bible Christians read Scripture to encounter Christ and be conformed to his image Scripture is no mere human text it is God's living word So how should we read it For Christians throughout the centuries the answer has been lectio divina divine reading em Lectio divina is a sacramental reading It aims to take us more deeply into the life of God Through practicing the four movements of emlectio divina attentive reading extended meditation prayerful reflection and silent resting we have a structured and simple way to focus on Christ listen to the Spirit and rest in God's love We no longer simply read the words of Scripture instead we read the face of God in the eternal Word

The Ecclesiastical Review, 1913 The Picture of Las Cruces Christian Reid, 1896 The doctrine of divine love; or, Outlines of the moral theology of the Evangelical Church. Tr. by S. Taylor Ernst Wilhelm C. Sartorius, 1884 The End of Divine Truthiness: Love, Power, and God Paul Joseph Greene, 2017-08-01 In The End of Divine Truthiness Paul Joseph Greene confronts stark realities of terrifying theologies that make a mockery out of divine love With urgent resolve Greene answers Martin Luther King Jr's pointed challenge to overcome reckless and abusive power without love and sentimental and anemic love without power Too many theologies cast God either as the tyrant whose loveless power lifts up the mighty or the victim whose powerless love sends the poor away empty Wielding Stephen Colbert's word truthiness as a scalpel Greene slices out one perilous theology after another to restore the wholesome truth that God is love Supported by three world religions Buddhism Christianity and Taoism he discovers a remarkably harmonious and revolutionary divine power that is fully aligned with divine love To reunify love and power here in the world as King challenges it is time to abandon ideologies of divine power that devastate divine love and promote atrocities Greene's call for the end of divine truthiness heralds a new day for the God whose love is power and whose power is love
