Love Portraits:

Love's Portrait Anna Larner, 2019-04-16 Newly appointed art curator Molly Goode is committed to diversifying her museum's collection. When Georgina Wright, the museum's aloof benefactor, asks for Molly's help in identifying the provenance of a 19th-century portrait of social activist Josephine Brancaster, Molly welcomes the opportunity even if it means spending time with the standoffish financier. But passions soon flare as the women uncover the heartbreaking story of doomed lesbian love behind the watercolor painted by Josephine's lover Edith Hewitt. As their love blossoms, Molly is determined to display Edith's portrait of Josephine and to tell their story in the museum, but she needs the influential Georgina to help convince the board. When an unforeseen twist in the painting's provenance forces Georgina to confront her own painful past, will history repeat itself or can Molly and Georgina's love prevail.

Black Wests Sara Gallagher, 2025-07-08 The story of settlers in the American West with its tales of cowboys, prospectors, and frontiersmen is often overwhelmingly white. Black Wests brings to light the pivotal and largely overlooked contributions of Black Americans to the western narrative. Tracing Black Western storytelling through a range of media across the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, Sara Gallagher offers a unique perspective on the Black Western: its history, its critical texts, and moments in print and cinema, and the singular experiences of Black creators in the American West.

It's Raining ... I Love You Molly Landreth, Jenny Riffle, 2020-11-11 This co-authored book of early self-portraits by two professional photographers celebrates love, first love, an enduring friendship that resulted in a lifelong devotion to photography as a form of creative expression. The black and white photographs in the book are drawn from the summer of 1999 when Prince told us to party, computer scientists feared global shutdown, and the seismic changes in communication that arrived with widespread use of the internet had not yet occurred. Jenny Riffle and Molly Landreth, home from their first year at separate colleges, documented the precious and banal moments of early adulthood as they explored their surroundings and each other through photography. Presented along with selected correspondence from the remainder of their college years, the photographs are a testament to the power of enduring friendship and the creative spirits of two unique yet complementary artists.
