What God Thinks When a Child Dies Patty Whitacre, 2022-01-14 When someone loses someone they love there is a period of grieving If the death resulted in the loss of a close or significant relationship the grieving can be really intense and cause us to blame ourselves or others and even God for the untimely death of our loved one If that someone was your own child the questions and what ifs can be excruciating If suicide was involved the questions seem to never end and guilt and shame can be debilitating In our grief we can lose sight of who God is Based on Scripture this book is an attempt to help those grieving see God and His character The Trinity has different roles and characteristics they embody Interweaved in each section are personal stories of loss and how the Trinity showed up during a time of the unimaginable loss of a child After the death of my son I struggled with praying and reading scriptures I had a hard time focusing for any length of time and I didn't know where to begin reading God took me on a journey by giving me a topic a day to explore in regard to His character and death dying and the care and comfort He has for us as we journey through this dark valley No one's journey is exactly alike No one heals exactly in the same timeframe and way but God is there with us individually caring for us to help us find peace where we can continue our own journey till it is our own time to meet Him We just need to be able to see and recognize Him along the way
