Loubli De Lhomme Et Lhonneur Des Dieux

Daniel Dubuisson,Martha Cunningham

L'oubli De L'homme Et L'honneur Des Dieux:

L'oubli de l'homme et l'honneur des dieux Georges Dumézil, 1985 Decayed Gods Wouter W. Belier, 2015-09-01 In 1930 Dumézil wrote an article in which he defended the Indo-European character of the Indian varnas. In 1986 he was completing his final 25 Esquisses research proposals, the aim of which was to allow his model of the idéologie tripartie of Indo-European traditions to be applied to his disciples. According to this model Indo-European traditions were typified by a threefold division into functions of society: the world of the gods and the heroic traditions. These were the functions of sovereignty, power and fertility. This theoretical model was elaborated by Dumézil in a large number of books and articles. Between 1930 and 1986 he broadened enormously the amount of data on which his model was based. To do so he had regularly to adapt and reformulate his model. This was not without consequences for the material which he had interpreted earlier on. In this study a detailed description is given of this process of reformulation and reinterpretation, and the conclusion is that the totality of the various models does not, despite its aesthetic attraction, satisfy the criteria which should be set for scientific models.

Twentieth Century Mythologies Daniel Dubuisson, Martha Cunningham, 2014-12-05 Myths have intrigued scholars throughout history. Twentieth Century Mythologies traces the study of myth over the last century, presenting the key theories of mythology and critiquing traditional definitions of myth. The volume presents the work of influential scholars in mythology: the noted Indo-Europeanist Georges Dumézil, the structuralist anthropologist Claude Lévi-Strauss, and the historian of religions Mircea Eliade. Twentieth Century Mythologies is an indispensable resource for scholars of religion and myth, and for all those interested in the history of ideas.

Greek Mythology and Poetics Gregory Nagy, 2018-09-05 Gregory Nagy here provides a far-reaching assessment of the relationship between myth and ritual in ancient Greek society. Nagy illuminates in particular the forces of interaction and change that transformed the Indo-European linguistic and cultural heritage into distinctly Greek social institutions between the eighth and the fifth centuries B.C. Included in the volume are thirteen of Nagy's major essays, all extensively revised for book publication on various aspects of the Hellenization of Indo-European poetics, myth, and ritual, and social ideology. The primary aim of this book is to examine the Greek language as a reflection of society, with special attention to its function as a vehicle for transmitting mythology and poetics. Nagy's emphasis on the language of the Greeks and on its comparison with the testimony of related Indo-European languages such as Latin, Indic, and Hittite reflects his long-standing interest in Indo-European linguistics. The individual chapters examine the development of Hellenic poetics in the traditions of Homer and Hesiod, the Hellenization of Indo-European myths and rituals, including myths of the afterlife, rituals of fire and symbols in the Greek lyric, and the Hellenization of Indo-European social ideology, with reference to such cultural institutions as the concept of the city-state. A path-breaking application of the principles of social anthropology, comparative mythology, historical linguistics, and oral poetry theory to the study of classics, Greek Mythology and Poetics will be an invaluable resource for classicists and other scholars of linguistics.
