Louis Wirth on Cities and Social Life Louis Wirth,1964 Louis Wirth on Cities and Social Life Louis Wirth,1969

On Cities and Social Life Louis Wirth,1964 The Romance of Culture in an Urban Civilisation Barbara Ballis

Lal,2017-10-12 In this book originally published in 1990 the author presents a general critical overview of Robert E Park and the Chicago school of American sociology Lal concentrates on the contribution that Park and those working within the Chicago school tradition have made to the area of urban race and ethnicity and suggests how the current thinking among sociologists anthropologists social historians and social geographers might usefully be amalgamated with the ongoing tradition originating with Park at Chicago This book should be of interest to students and teachers of sociology urban studies and race relations On Cities and Social Life Louis Wirth,1964 Speaking of Diversity Philip Gleason,2019-12-01

Originally published in 1992 In this collection of essays Philip Gleason explores the different linguistic tools that American scholars have used to write about ethnicity in the United States and analyzes how various vocabularies have played out in the political sphere In doing this he reveals tensions between terms used by academic groups and those preferred by the people whom the academics discuss Gleason unpacks words and phrases such as melting pot and plurality used to visualize the multitude of ethnicities in the United States And he examines debates over concepts such as assimilation national character oppressed group and people of color Gleason advocates for greater clarity of these concepts when discussed in America s national political arena Gleason s essays are grouped into three parts Part 1 focuses on linguistic analyses of specific terms Part 2 examines the effect of World War II on national identity and American thought about diversity and intergroup relations Part 3 discusses discourse on the diversity of religions This collection of eleven essays sharpens our historical understanding of the evolution of language used to define diversity in twentieth century America Experiencing Cities Mark

Hutter,2015-12-22 This extraordinary text for undergraduate urban students is a reflection of Mark Hutter s academic interests in urban sociology and his life long passion for experiencing city life His deep academic roots in the Chicago School of Sociology help inform and appreciate the variety of urban structures and processes and their effect on the everyday lives of people living in cities This text however extends the Chicago School perspective by combining its traditions with a social psychological perspective derived from symbolic interaction and also with a macro level examination of social organization social change stratification and power in the urban context informed by political economy This entirely new 3rd Edition has a global outlook on city life and a visual presentation unmatched among books in this genre The City Reader Richard T.

LeGates,Frederic Stout,2015-07-16 The sixth edition of the highly successful The City Reader juxtaposes the very best classic and contemporary writings on the city to provide the comprehensive mapping of the terrain of Urban Studies and Planning old and new The City Reader is the anchor volume in the Routledge Urban Reader Series and is now integrated with all ten other titles in the series This edition has been extensively updated and expanded to reflect the latest thinking in each of the disciplinary areas included and in topical areas such as compact cities urban history place making sustainable urban development globalization cities and climate change the world city network the impact of technology on cities resilient cities cities in Africa and the Middle East and urban theory The new edition places greater emphasis on cities in the developing world globalization and the global city system of the future The plate sections have been revised and updated Sixty generous selections are included forty four from the fifth edition and sixteen new selections including three newly written exclusively for The City Reader The sixth edition keeps classic writings by authors such as Ebenezer Howard Ernest W Burgess LeCorbusier Lewis Mumford Jane Jacobs and Louis Wirth as well as the best contemporary writings of among others Peter Hall Manuel Castells David Harvey Saskia Sassen and Kenneth Jackson In addition to newly commissioned selections by Yasser Elshehawey Peter Taylor and Lawrence Vale new selections in the sixth edition include writings by Aristotle Peter Calthorpe Alberto Camarillo Filip DeBoeck Edward Glaeser David Owen Henri Pirenne The Project for Public Spaces Jonas Rabinovich and Joseph Lietman Doug Saunders and Bish Sanyal The anthology features general and section introductions as well as individual introductions to the selected articles introducing the authors providing context relating the selection to other selection and providing a bibliography for further study The sixth edition includes fifty plates in four plate sections substantially revised from the fifth edition

Cordes, 2020-06-11 New York in Cinematic Imagination is an interdisciplinary study into urbanism and cinematic representations of the American metropolis in the twentieth century It contextualizes spatial transformations and discourse about New York during the Great Depression and the Second World War examining both imaginary narratives and documentary images of the city in film The book argues that alternating endorsements and critiques of the 1920s machine age city are replaced in films of the 1930s and 1940s by a new critical theory of agitated urban modernity articulated against the backdrop of turbulent economic and social settings and the initial practices of urban renewal in the post war period Written for postgraduates and researchers in the fields of film history and urban studies with 40 black and white illustrations to work alongside the text this book is an engaging study into cinematic representations of New York City Virginia Social Science Journal, 1978
