Shakespearean love and more broadly on the interaction between our common humanity and our historical contingency as they are reflected recast transformed or even suppressed in literary works After addressing critical issues about love biology and culture raised by his method Nordlund considers four specific forms of love in seven of Shakespeare's plays Examining the vicissitudes of parental love in Titus Andronicus and Coriolanus he argues that Shakespeare makes a sustained inquiry into the impact of culture and society upon the natural human affections King Lear offers insight into the conflicted relationship between love and duty In two problem plays about romantic love Troilus and Cressida and All's Well that Ends Well the tension between individual idiosyncrasies and social consensus becomes especially salient And finally in Othello and The Winter's Tale Nordlund asks what Shakespeare can tell us about the dark avatar of jealousy Steiger's Educational Directory for 1878 Ernst Steiger, 1878
