Surprise Me! Nancy Goodman, 2012-02-13 After all the books I've come across on the subject of dieting I was surprised to find that Nancy Goodman's Surprise Me actually opened up some new perspectives for me on the subject of emotional eating This entertaining story combines the thought provoking insights of a self help book with the funny unpredictable characters and situations of a popular novel Diane Tyrrel bestselling author of THE INN AT HALF MOON BAY How can a girl figure out if she's choosing the right man to marry Can a craving for food be part of a clue that leads her to her truth Could the unhappy events and fears from her past be a set up for the ultimate surprise party And What if pain was not the curse but the course At Surprise Enterprise Genie Burns masterminds off the wall surprise parties in nobody would suspect it locations Here she takes crazy risks but it's all within her plan and under her control Along comes Jeff They slip into a passionate love where she loses all control Meanwhile Surprise Enterprise has just been contracted to throw a surprise party wedding by a client who prefers not to reveal his identity As Genie works to get his bride down the aisle her own life begins to take turns Is Jeff the one because he challenges Genie to heal the wounds from her past Or is he the wrong one because he repeats them We'll find out in the end and not a moment before because what's real in life screams Surprise If you liked Emily Giffin's SOMETHING BORROWED you'll love SURPRISE ME
