Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Generalia, language and literature, the arts Albert John Walford,1998
From its first edition the purpose of Walford has been to identify and evaluate the widest possible range of reference materials No rigid definition of reference is applied In addition to the expected bibliographies indexes dictionaries encyclopaedias and directories a number of important textbooks and manuals of general practice are included While the majority of the items are books Walford is a guide to reference material Thus periodical articles microforms online and CD ROM sources are all represented In this volume a particular effort has been made to improve coverage of the latter two categories Love and Marriage in Africa in the Novels of Elechi Amadi, Buchi Emecheta and Chinua Achebe Dr. Richa Jha,2022-03-03 The theme of love and marriage in literature is perhaps as old as literature itself Works of literature across borders and genres have worked around these twin themes to give us some of the most memorable tales yet they appear quite neglected by the critics when making a study of African literature The world of literary criticism has witnessed a newfound interest in the African continent which had for a long time been suffering in ignominious darkness yet the majority of critical study is still focused on postcolonial themes and human relationships have largely been ignored The white man s perception and portrayal of Africa as a land of savages devoid of finer emotions could be a major influence in this regard This study strives to prove that the Africans have always had a rich history and culture of interpersonal relationships and the twin themes of love and marriage run across their literature justifying their claim to being as capable of harboring finer emotions as any other civilization of the world The novels under study in this research work present the importance of love in various aspects like the man woman relationship parent child relationship and an individual s love for his native land Various types of matrimonial alliances with the different aspects of an African marriage such as settling of marriage settlement and payment of the bride price gender equations polygamy widow remarriage etc have all been studied in the backdrop of the three novels taken under consideration This research work based on the novels of Elechi Amadi Buchi Emecheta and Chinua Achebe studies the representation of love and marriage in African literature as an important and recurrent theme that touches upon other aspects of the society like class division human relationships social beliefs myths superstition and most importantly the gender perspectives The Silent Appalachian Vicki Sigmon Collins,2017-01-03 Appalachian literature is filled with silent or non discursive characters The reasons for their wordlessness vary Some are mute or pretend to be some choose not to speak or are silenced by grief trauma or fear Others mutter monosyllables stutter grunt and point speak in tongues or idiosyncratic language They capture the reader s attention by what they don t say

Flannery O'Connor R. Neil Scott,2002 Choice ,2000 Literature, Science, and a New Humanities J.

Gottschall,2008-09-29 Literary studies are at a tipping point There is broad agreement that the discipline is in crisis that it is aimless that its intellectual energy is spent that all of the trends are bad and that fundamental change will be required to set things right But there is little agreement on what those changes should be and no one can predict which way things will ultimately tip Literature Science and a New Humanities represents a bold new response to the crisis in academic literary studies This book presents a total challenge to dominant paradigms of literary analysis and offers a sweeping critique of those paradigms and sketches outlines of a new paradigm inspired by scientific theories methods and attitudes
